Protocol for Skype Counselling

Through the years we have learnt a couple of very valuable lessons to make Skype counselling more effective and ensuring a much better result and breakthrough.

It takes many hours and effort to do Skype counselling – and so we would like to suggest the following to help us along the process for healing and deliverance.

As we all know – SRA is a very difficult terrain and the client has been taught with exact precision to be VERY sharp and deceitful.

They have been trained:

- ◆ to deceive the counsellor
- ◆ they are super soldiers
- ◆ super spies and super killers
- ◆ psychic and physical.

They have so been programmed:

- ◆ to “read” the programmer
- ◆ to give them exactly what they are asking for
- ◆ to read their every movement and the slightest smallest flickering and trick
- ◆ the programmer sets MANY traps and tricks along the way to purposefully catch out the victim
... just so they can punish them severely.

Because of how the brain works, the victim creates a duplicate of the programmer inside their system.

A word to every SURVIVOR

Forgive yourself for not knowing better at the time.

Forgive yourself for giving away your power.

Forgive yourself for past behaviours.

Forgive yourself for the survival patterns and traits you picked up while enduring trauma.

Forgive yourself for being who you needed to be ...

DAY 1

1. Recap Kaballah

Recap Kabbalah Tree

i) During the previous November 2019 Conference we learned about:

- ◆ How quantum helps in modern day counselling.
- ◆ More about the Kabbalah philosophy
- ◆ What a Kabbalah tree looks like
- ◆ About the artificial Energy System
- ◆ The chronological order of events in the life of a survivor
- ◆ The different domains
- ◆ Projects in the cult

ii) During this Conference we will deal with:

- ◆ Recapping the Kabbalah teaching - making things more clear
- ◆ Give an update with new knowledge around the domains and systems in a survivor
- ◆ Share new insights we have learned in the past months.
- ◆ Focus on counseling strategies (Tuesday)
- ◆ Focus on how to help a survivor to become an overcomer (Wednesday)
- ◆ Focus on prayer and spiritual warfare (Thursday)

iii) Questions and Answers

- ◆ Every LAST session of the day will be focused on Q&A.
- ◆ You can send your questions BEFORE 3pm to 'orders@kanaanministries.nl'
- ◆ Please put all your questions in ONE email.

Kabbalah Theology

Kabbalah claims to explain the 'hidden' and 'esoteric' meaning of the Tanach.

In Kabbalah 'Ein Sof' is god and he is the creator of Yahweh.

They believe in the 'kosher' serpent who eventually will be the Messiah.

He will restore knowledge to humanity and will be known as the 'techno serpent'.

The Kabbalah Tree

This tree is also called the 'Tree of life' or 'Tree of knowledge of good and evil.'

The Tree contains several components that we worked through in June 2020:

- ◆ Negative Veils
- ◆ Sephiroth and pathways
- ◆ Pillars
- ◆ The four worlds
- ◆ Parts of the Soul
- ◆ Triads

Kabbalah and Programming

It is also called Hermetic Kabbalah. They have combined Kabbalah with Freemasonry and have put all kind of aspects to all the different components of the Tree.

J. Mengele also has perfected this in his programming

The Tree and its aspects are being used in programming with a lot of survivors.

It's not the pure 'Jewish' Kabbalah that you will find, but it is mixed with the teachings of Aleister Crowley and Manly P. Hall.

Cosmic Tree

The cosmic Tree is in the 2nd heaven.

It seems to be plugged into Lucifer's iniquity.

The iniquity of humanity and the activity of survivors energises this tree as well.

Every survivor is connected to the Cosmic Tree.

Often this is done through the energy wheels.

Many survivors are connected with the alpha / omega chakra's.

Energy System

Cosmic

Survivor

Artificial Energy System

12 weeks: Alpha/Omega chakra created, artificial energy system in place.

Also a template of the Kabbalah tree is installed. Later in life this will be activated through programming.

Building the tree

The first Tree is built in almost every survivor. It was Mengele's basic thing to do.

It is the foundation for the survivor to climb up the Jacob's ladder. It is represented on the cosmic tree by the bottom Circle (Malkut). It also represents the physical world of the Jacob's ladder - Assiah. Here we also see the principle 'as above, so below' and the 'Tree of evil' is mirrored and built in the survivor. That is the access point to the dimension of the Underworld.

- ◆ Foundational Tree is built on Template
- ◆ Malkut on Cosmic Tree
- ◆ Assiah on Jacob's ladder
- ◆ As above, so below
- ◆ Tree of Evil is access to underworld

Climbing the tree

After building the foundation, a survivor is ready to start climbing the Tree.

First crossing of Abyss / veil of physicality. Leaving the physical elements behind, learning to use the Merkaba.

1st level of unseen world is working with lower entities/hybrids/demons etc.

As you move up the ladder, you also move up in ranking in the underworld.

- ◆ World of Yetzirah, through the veil of physicality (like abyss)
- ◆ Leaving behind the world of physicality
- ◆ At this level you work with lower entities, hybrids etc.
- ◆ As you move up the ladder, you also move up in the underworld

It's the heart of the Cosmic Tree. Here you will find your high level royal survivors.

Climbing the Ladder

Next step on the ladder is the world of Beriah.

You enter through the veil of Paroketh (like abyss)

On this level your work with the fallen angels

This is the heart of the Cosmic tree. Not many move further up.

The final step is the world of Atziluth.

At this level there is direct contact with Lucifer.

Entering happens through the Abyss (Da'at) top of Metatron's cube.

DAY 1

2. Systems

Recap Core and the three Domains

What is Core?

We all have a beginning.

Conception Identity (CI) is the one whole person that God had in mind.

This is the TRUE CORE

The CI splits into 3 Core Shields.

- ◆ A Core Shield is not an alter
- ◆ A Core Shield is a primary representation of the Core with a linear history.
- ◆ The Presenter (host) is created around 3 or 4 years old.
- ◆ Presenter is not a representation of Core.

Host / Presenter

Until recently we thought that the presenter was created outside the core system.

Through several survivors it has now been confirmed that this is WRONG and that there is a presenter system.

To Be Continued...

A short recap of Core Events

Most survivors go through the same protocols.

Even though they are unique, to the cult they are nothing but a number in a project.

Conception - Implantation

- ◆ Conception through IVF.
- ◆ Immediate 1st split
- ◆ Fallen angel assigned
- ◆ Download Iniquity
- ◆ Embryo is placed in small ball and used in rituals.

Implantation - Birth

- ◆ Between conception and implantation can be days/weeks/years.
- ◆ Implantation can be in human or machine.
- ◆ Around 12 weeks the artificial energy system is installed.
- ◆ Rituals, torture, DNA programming etc. happen.

Birth - New Birth

Birth is always as traumatic as possible.

3-way rape after birth.

Often placed with nephilims.

Conditioning (bonding etc.)

Reminder

Programming is NOT the same as conditioning.

Conditioning forms the BASE for programming.

A child is conditioned to survive in the cult - the programming will be much more effective.

New Birth

Around 12 months there is a new birth experience.

In that moment, the child is FULLY ONE for a split second - NBI

3-way sex splits the NBI back in 3 core shields.

Many layers of death are wrapped around the NBI.

New Birth - coming of Age

Most programming is done in this period.

Fallen angel oversees the whole process.

By the time the child is placed with a 'normal' family, the presenter is created.

Coming of Age

Taking responsibility for your own actions.

Five "I will's" - loyalty to Satan.
Representation of NBI is put to death.

Conception of first Hybrid Son.

Survivor takes on all satanic RAGE and gives room for APOLLYON to take over.

New Birth vs Coming of Age

Victim	Perpetrator
Opening heart to Yeshua	Opening heart to Satan
I have NO control	I AM in control
Daughter	Mother

13 and after - Seals

- ◆ Age 13: MOTHER of nephilim son
- ◆ Age 26: WIFE, marries her nephilim son
- ◆ Age 39: Gives birth to another nephilim son
- ◆ Age 54: Gives birth to last nephilim son
- ◆ Age 65: Last nephilim son gets sacrificed. Survivor is now sealed as a FULL 5 star slave of Satan.

A short recap of Domains

In all the Core Events the different DOMAINS are installed and reaffirmed:

Apollyon

Nimrod

Michael

A. NIMROD

Nimrod was the first anti-Christ.

He transformed into a hybrid.

He will be the last anti-Christ: the satanic One New Man.

All the domains are focussed on Nimrod.

His character is represented as Apollyon

He uses the false light of the false prophet, Michael, to win the world.

To the world he will be known as 'Alexander'.

B. Apollyon

Apollyon represents the character of Satan, pure beast-like evil.

This domain holds the satanic rage against God, Christians, the NBI etc.

o survive in this domain, the child will give up its humanity.

He becomes a beast, nephilim, hybrid etc.

Here you find the underworld, satanic rage etc.

C. Michael

Michael represents the false prophet. The main entities in this domain are Michael and Metatron.

Satan is known as Lucifer.

This is the most spiritual domain, with a lot of false light. The survivor uses spirituality on a quantum level.

Energy centres, the flow and the use of energy is maximised. In this domain spiritual energy is charged through sex. Tantric sex is used to steal energy.

Three Domains

During the New Birth ritual, the three domains are installed in a specific way:

- ◆ NIMROD encapsulates the BODY domain during the first orgasm.
- ◆ Apollyon captures the SOUL domain through the sodomy.
- ◆ SATAN (Lucifer) claims the spirit when it is brought into death by ORAL suffocation.

From conception the foundations for the three core shields haven been installed.

Each have their own purpose with an entity or nephilim that is responsible.

The shields are now connected to the domains.

Each shield will be divided into three main core parts.

Behind each Core Part you will find alter systems.

Latest information

- a. There is a Conception Identity
- b. This one is split into three Core Shields
- c. Each core shield is split into three Core Parts
- d. Each core shield is connected to a domain
- e. Behind every core part there is an alter system

What has been discovered to date

- ◆ There are NOT only domains
- ◆ There are ALSO systems
- ◆ These systems have their foundation in one of the domains
- ◆ From there they move through the domains.

1. Bloodline System

- ◆ The bloodline system has its foundation in the Nimrod domain.
- ◆ It has 13 parts, all connected to the bloodline.
- ◆ It follows a timeline from Conception to Age of the body.

2. Presenter System

- ◆ Alexander is the 'Presenter' of Nimrod.
- ◆ The Presenter System is part of the Nimrod domain, but a separate system.
- ◆ The Presenter system is installed in to the 'Survival Brain'.
- ◆ It functions completely separated from the rest of the systems.
- ◆ The Presenter System is created just after NB.
- ◆ The Presenter Baby is 'non active' until it gets activated around 3 year olds.
- ◆ In several cases, it came forward that there is a 'Universal Presenter Baby.'
- ◆ This baby is hidden in 2nd heaven.
- ◆ As long as there is a connection between this one and the Presenter system, unlimited presenter parts can be created.
- ◆ Only when disconnected from the Universal Baby, you can go back to the NBI.
- ◆ In the presenter system you often find a 'Christian Presenter' and a 'non-Christian Presenter'.

3. Quantum System

The Quantum System has its foundation in the Michael domain. This system operates mainly in another dimension.

Parts usually don't need a body to function.

Just like in the Nimrod domain, there seems to be a big difference between man and women.

Also younger survivors have a much more complex quantum system.

This system also seems to have 13 parts.

4. False Israel System

This system has only recently been discovered. It has its foundation in the Apollyon domain.

This represents a false Biblical system and has Biblical names (13 parts).

A 2D example of the systems

What it really looks like

3. Pre-Adamic sins and GRIDS

Grids

Grids are quantum networks of energy pathways intersecting at nodal points (each nodal point being its own realm) and performing functions related to the iniquity that undergirds them and the powers of darkness that oversee them.

Human fragments are held captive at nodal points and also trafficked (along with many other things like inheritance, birthrights, and resources) through the energy pathways of the grids.

Personal Evil Grids

Grids are quantum networks of energy pathways intersecting at nodal points (each nodal point being its own realm) and performing functions related to the iniquity that undergirds them and the powers of darkness that oversee them.

Human fragments are held captive at nodal points and also trafficked (along with many other things like inheritance, birthrights, and resources) through the energy pathways of the grids.

Everyone born within bloodline families that have significance to the kingdom of darkness will have evil grids that are established for them at conception. When these are renounced, it liberates whole families and even governments and components of creation.

DAY 1

4. East vs West of Germany and Beyond

The East vs the West of Germany and Beyond

I was raised in a very small town in West Germany near the East German border.

My grandfather was the high priest of a clan/cult. The cult territory spanned the region of Hesse in the western part of Germany as well as the region of Thuringia in the eastern section of Germany. While “normal” people (West Germans) weren't able to meet their relatives living on “the other side” of Germany, it was never a problem for him, us and the cult. While other people were sometimes shot at the border, the clan members would be untouched - just standing and talking. My grandfather often brought me to the border just “to talk” with members of the eastern Germany clan and to “download” some information on several levels. As a child, I remember some people driving me in the military tanks up and down the border on the tankways. It was both scary and exciting.

After losing World War II, Germany was divided. But the actual division went far deeper and wider than one country's walls, wire barriers, and watchtowers. Not only was Germany itself divided; it also brought a deep split between the eastern and western nations after World War II. While Russia took care of Eastern Germany, the US Army had their places in Western Germany. This was the basis for the “Cold War” between The United States and the Soviet Union.

Wire Barriers

The 3rd of October is a special day of celebration in all of Germany. Known as Unity Day or National Day it memorializes the merging of East and West Germany into one unified country on Oct 3, 1990 after 45 years of division. While the Berlin Wall actually fell on Nov 9, 1989, that date was not chosen as it had ties to the first Nazi plans for the massacre of the Jewish people in 1938.

What is interesting is that “my” clans celebrated the 3rd of October long before it became the “Unity Day” of Germany. (!!) I remember visiting the eastern clan always at the beginning of October and celebrating a unity that didn’t even exist yet. In 1989, when the border and the Berlin Wall finally came down and most of Germany was celebrating, my grandfather said: “We are going to celebrate next year, the 3rd of October as the first “Unity Day” in Germany. Next year, because this year you are not old enough yet.”

I don’t remember any 3rd of October in Germany that wasn’t filled with bloodshed and crazy ugly rituals.

Also, of note, I was conceived on the 3rd of October 1944 with the dark purpose of being “the one who will divide but most of all reunite”.

Satanic Armies and the Final Battles

The Darkness is busy preparing their armies for "the Finals". They have been preparing for a long time but sensing the time is getting short, the training is growing more and more intense. The armies themselves are deep down the earth, under the sea, in the sky and in other dimensions.

Here is a short summary of how some of my parts experienced the training, what they've seen, heard and felt.

Hell Runners

Very often you are confronted with creatures, that my warrior parts would call "hell-runners". A hell-runner is a creature that can bring you very fast through different dimensions into the darkest realms of underworld and hell if you are not able to go there on your own. Depending on the kind of "hell-runner" and depending on where you need to be, they can also bring you up in the sky, deep down the sea (to the sea under the sea).

Sometimes these creatures "kidnap" people the darkness wants to use, punish, or see dead. They try to bring them deep into the darkness (where "normal" people would lose their minds and be unable to breathe at a certain level).

Sometimes, these creatures help parts to dig deeper into the underworld, hell or fire realms, or Air or Sea dimensions. If those parts are not yet ranked and powered enough to dig there on their own (where they need to be at the moment) but they already have enough ranking and powers; the darkness will let them go deeper anyway because they will be trained to go there on their own later.

They carry those they need to bring on their back, surrounding them with a feeling of "safety and curiosity", and with just enough sexual stimulation to keep them there.

The hell runners have several markings on their bodies that glow reddish (for the under-earth runners). The red glow comes from some kind of hellfire or lava running through these creatures. In fact, if you have "sex" with them, they release an "eternal hellfire, eternal Lava" into you that makes you stronger and more resistant for the fire and the deeper realms of the underworld/hell-/fire dimensions). The markings glow different colors depending on the creature's destination: light grey-bluish and yellow (for those who bring others to the air-realms) and dark-bluish (for those who bring others down under the sea).

These creatures are always very big, greyish or brownish in color and not hairy. Coming from snake infested regions, the hell runners always bring snakes with them: snakes of different colors, different sizes, and different poisons... Often during the ride on this creature, a snake is crawling through the vagina into the one who is riding on the back of the creature.

The markings on each creature vary depending on the dimension/region to which they are taking you. They may have several moons (sometimes in different phases of the moon), planets, or other signs for dimensions and so on their back. The markings vary not only according to the dimension or region they are going but also are based on the constellation of the planets and moon while you are riding on them, there's always the sigil of Lucifer involved.

Representations of Hell Runners

It is amazing how similar these drawings and experiences are between at least 2 individuals on separate continents/countries who were not aware of the other...These images were drawn 2 years apart by 2 different people...

Short Description of Some Experiences Deep Down Under the Earth

When you are finally at the place where you need to be you are trained in different ways, it's all about training and ranking. You want to lead the army in the final battles. You don't just want to be someone in this army; you want to lead a part of the army. So, you give it your all.

To get deeper, you need to be able to survive deep down. To survive deep down, you need to be filled with fire. To be filled with fire, you need to have a body that can stand the fiery breath.

The Fiery Trainer

You meet your trainer who is a very crazy crossbreed or hybrid. His breath is fire and its tail causes earthquakes. His claws are like swords but sharper than any sword you know, cutting stones as if they were simply creamy butter. Its eyes are black and red, and you will be lost if you dare to look into them. You become lost in madness, pain and death...

The first thing your trainer does is to kill you. And then he gives you life again. Now, you owe him your life. It's his life dancing in you ... the darkness dancing in you.

You as Warrior

Early on you are trained in battle, trained in war strategies, and most of all, you are trained in killing without even touching someone. You are schooled to raise the level of your energy field in such a way that if you throw your fiery energy at someone, the one who will be hit is going to burn from the inside out. The faster the person is burning to death, the better skilled you are

After a while you need to go deeper with your training. So, you lay down your life. You ask the lord of the hell-fire armies (Leviathan) to take your life and you surrender everything once again; you surrender your whole being to Lucifer.

If you are worthy enough, he takes your life as a sacrifice but gives back his breath to you, to resurrect you again. It's his life in you! There's nothing left that is yours. It's all his life, his breath, his fire, his rage in you.

So, you've laid down your life totally in order to survive and to have a ranking in which you can fully serve him. You believe that this was the right thing to do. You need to be worthy to serve him. You need to be strong to be a warrior for him.

And so finally, you have the ranking and the power to lead a part of his army in the Finals."

Here are 2 different depictions of warrior parts drawn by the same 2 individuals above.

The Satanic Army

The creatures in these armies are hard to describe. They are mostly hybrids and crossbreeds, a combination of the darkest creature and human parts. For example, there are "worms" (earthworms) the size of a house and the length of at least 500 meters up to kilometers. They swallow everything before them; they are prepared to swallow dead bodies to make the way "free" for the rest of the army.

BUT everyone joining this army is able to trick you. The whole army can give you the illusion of being just a harmless meeting of nice-looking men and women. It's all about illusion, tricks and deception.

DAY 2

1. Healing the Time Lines back to Core - NBI

Core Shields

Working with Core

Introduction

When you step in the world of DID/SRA, you'll find very quickly that one client can keep you busy for the rest of your life. Literally thousands of parts have been created over the years and working through the layers of programming, booby-traps, codes and so forth, will take decades with only so much results.

Praise be to God for all those patient and loving counsellors who have been willing to sit with survivors for so many years, battling through all the pain and sorrow.

But also praise be to God for giving new insights on how to bypass all the programming and the bunny trails to get to wholeness so much faster.

Over the last decades Yahweh has given many revelations about the principles that are foundational in survivors. He has exposed the protocols that apply for most of the survivors and, therefore, dealing with these principles and protocols make the journey to wholeness faster and more effective.

It still is a long, intense journey, but can we expect to find a quick fix for a deeply-rooted, and enduring life span of torture and trauma?

A few of the principles that God has revealed, would be the revelations about:

- Working with Core
- Neshamah
- the Sheath
- the Silver Cord

This article will give a basic overview about what 'Core' is, how it works, and how to work with it once you've found it. Teachings about Neshamah and the Sheath are available in other articles, however these terms will be used in this article, so a basic understanding is necessary.

What is core?

We all have a beginning where we are still one person, at conception. When God creates a human being, He has one whole human in mind with one spirit, one soul and one body.

He designed us to function in unity and in relationship with Him.

The sperm and the ovum that merge together and form the beginning of a new life, we call the Conception Identity (CI). However small it might be, this CI is the one whole person that God had in mind when He started His creation. This is the true core of every survivor.

The true core will be split into three core shields who will all have a linear history. These are not alters / identities, but they are a primary representation of the core. Later in life these core shields will be subjected to programming and in each core shield a whole system with alters will be created.

The person who comes for counselling never is a representation of the core. We call this the Host or the Presenter. The Presenter is created later in life, usually somewhere between 3 and 4 years old. The Presenter often has no idea what world he/she comes from and what he/she will have to go through.

How to identify core

Getting to core can be a process of many weeks, months or even years. How fast you get to core depends on both the counsellor and the survivor.

As a counsellor you need to be sharp and not be led astray in bunny trails - of which there are many - carefully pre-programmed by the handler and also orchestrated by the internal cult aligned parts. Getting stuck in the programming happens before you realise it, and if it doesn't lead back to core, it will add a lot of time to the process.

To identify core you will need the help of Neshamah. Only the True Core is connected to the true Neshamah. In the chapter about Neshamah, more is described about this subject and how you will know that it is True Core that you're working with.

Now, it can be very helpful to talk with parts and work a bit through the programming, etc., especially in the beginning, because it can help the survivor to come out of denial and accept more of his history.

It can be helpful to know that core is always watching, so even when you are dealing with "superficial" layers, some aspect of core is always watching to see what happens.

Often, all the "strong escapes" - the parts who easily come forward to speak to you - the survivor would label as "core" in the beginning of the process - but they are actually less "core" than all the deepest, most broken parts that want nothing to do with being important.

These deepest core parts embody shame, vulnerability, hopelessness and non-verbal, indescribable pain around bonding and the lack of it.

As a survivor, it is very important to be wholly committed to getting out. Issues like pride, denial, anger, etc. need to be exposed and worked through. The survivor has to be willing to not only look at what was done to him (being a victim), but also at what he has done to other people in his life - especially other children (victimiser).

Protocols, phases, projects, and so on.

When working with a royal bloodline survivor, you will find that there is a certain order and recurring themes that you will also find with other survivors.

This isn't strange, because although the survivor is a unique human being, to the cult they are a number in a very large project. The cult has found very effective ways to program their subjects and they use the same methods on most of the survivors.

Only the technique to do it gets more advanced as knowledge increases through the years -so working with a younger survivor will get you a different story than working with an older survivor.

However, milestones, projects, locations etc. will often stay the same.

Of course, this doesn't mean that all survivors have the same story. The cult will scan each survivor for strengths and weaknesses and program them according to those.

Let's go through the linear history of a survivor and discuss some of the things that you might find in many survivors.

1. Conception - Implantation

At pre-conception, a blue-print plan for the child is already in place - the fallen angel assigned to this child is watching over the whole process - this fallen angel will eventually impregnate the child very soon after her first menstrual cycle - and he will "become flesh" - in the form of a nephilim. (This is the Babylonian copy of the story of Mary being impregnated by God Himself - and then coming in the flesh as our Redeemer.)

At conception there are demonic "blessings" placed upon the sperm and the ovum of what the child is to become according to the blue print plan of Satan - and all the iniquity back to the fall is downloaded on to the embryo.

In this modern age we all know about the possibilities of IVF and how a frozen embryo can be stored away for years. What most of us don't know, is that most of the technology we encounter today, was already available between 30 to 50 years ago.

Working with Neshamah, it has been discovered that some of the survivors have been conceived already in 1944. Also, just like with modern IVF, they use multiple fertilised eggs that they keep.

Usually a few 'siblings' are being kept to use as a proxy for the one with the strongest spirit (this is being determined at conception). They will take the fertilised embryo and splice it in to 2, 3, 4, 5 identical siblings so that they can use them together with the "chosen one" of the group - please remember - that because of the fact they are identical and from the same embryo - there are very strong symbiotic bonds between them all.

- One sibling could be sacrificed to seal in certain callings and so forth;
- Another could be permanently used in the cult to be tortured - and then the "chosen one" will experience exactly what they are doing to the tortured one through the symbiotic bond;
- Another will be used to swop in and out with the "chosen one" when she has to be removed from her family for long times of programming and cult assignments in other countries;
- And so forth ...

The technique used to keep the embryo alive, is both spiritual and physical.

Immediately after conception, the first split is created. This is done through the downloading of the generational iniquity all the way back to the fall. This is such a strong force, that it will create an immediate split.

Since there is no soul yet, this split happens on a spirit level. The split can be described as the release of some sort of star-dust - where this tiny embryo is so shattered that it describes itself as just dust.

The embryo is placed in a small blue / silver / clear-ish ball. This ball is both spiritual and physical. It is frozen and yet alive.

The blue light within represents the life of Satan and is actually used in a lot of cult-technology. Also, the spirit of what later will become the 'nephilim son' of the survivor is already present.

He watches over the process and the embryo attaches itself to the presence of this being. It will feel as if this being is part of its own life. The survivor doesn't know better than that this presence is a part of his/her life.

Because of this technology, the embryo in this 'frozen' state, could be placed in men and women at different times during rituals. The effect of this, is that during the rituals parts of the essence (the star dust) is being released and captured to be placed in different dimensions - as well as particles of the "dust" is captured in every portal all over the world. This happens when the embryo is placed in side a man or woman - obviously a high ranking priest or priestess - and taken in a UFO all around the world - to have their essence "scattered" and captured in the portals all over the world - so later access to these portals will be very easily attained.

All of this happens when there's no body yet, so there are no boundaries in place. Having their essence already scattered all over the different dimensions, it will make it feel natural for a survivor to go to these places once they're 'stuck' in a body.

When in the body, the survivor is not limited to the physical boundaries of a "normal" body. When in a trauma, the survivor can project himself into the perpetrator, the universe, another body, actually anything, really.

Projects

Between conception and implantation, there are already projects that the cult are working on.

One of the projects would be the 'XY-project.' This is the scientific attempt to work with the electromagnetic field and work towards the 'one new man.' Their goal is to create a genderless human being that can become anything they want.

They also lay the foundation for the different domains that are going to be installed:

- Apollyon (the beast),
- Michael (the false prophet) and
- Nimrod (the one new man / anti christ).

2. Implantation - Birth

The time between conception and implantation can be weeks, months, years or even decades. The embryo can be implanted in a human being or even in an artificial womb (especially for the younger generation). This womb looks a bit like a large, transparent egg.

There are two umbilical cords and the environment is very controlled by computers, nephilim and scientists.

The whole development of the embryo is being monitored, especially when the nervous system is being formed. In a normal pregnancy, around 12 weeks in this womb, the placenta connects to the womb.

For the survivor there is another pathway planned - the fallen angels have released the programming technology, and so they now at this stage create the 3rd core shield.

PLEASE NOTE

As we're still discovering what this 3rd shield is really about, we'll share what the thesis is:

The 3rd shield is focused on the energy centres that are based in the spine. Through trauma they overload the tiny energy system that is formed and with the split that takes place, a whole new 'artificial' energy system is put in place.

The core shield that is created has its own energy system, even though it is based in the original. This part will be the most hidden and protected one, as it seems that in this part the 'perfect one new man' for Satan is being created.

Conditioning vs. Programming

While in the womb, the baby is already being conditioned in the way that the cult has purposed. Conditioning is not the same as programming. Conditioning forms the base for programming. When a child is conditioned to know how to survive in the cult, programming is much more effective. Conditioning is done in many ways / areas: bonding, feeling safe, developing emotions, and so forth.

3. Birth - New Birth

Birth always is as traumatic as possible. In many cases the womb of the surrogate mother is cut open and the child has to find its way out, while it feels the life of the mother floating away - she dies as a sacrifice.

In cases of an artificial womb, the baby is placed inside a woman and then the same thing happens. In the last example, the first bonding with a human being, immediately turns deadly.

As soon as the baby has fought its way out of the woman, a three way sexual assault will take place (front, back, oral). This is for the three domains to be affirmed.

Usually after birth, the baby stays with the cult for a while. Some children stay as long as 4 years before they are placed in a surrogate family. In this phase, a lot of conditioning takes place, and there are many ways to condition the child. There are many different testimonies about these years, but a few things seem to re-occur.

With the younger generation, the survivors are often placed with the nephilims. The conditions described are horrific - cold, dark, damp, places - caves, it could be under the Temple Mount or Antartica, or so forth.

Only for survival or for conditioning that has to do with humans, will they be allowed to be with humans for a while. Usually this is a mother figure who takes care of the baby.

Once the baby is ready to go back to the nephilims, she will have to give the baby back. This is very traumatic, both for the mother as well as for the baby.

The survivor is conditioned in a way that every 'normal' behaviour for a baby is taken away.

Some conditioning that has taken place:

- Crying does not help, it only makes things worse. You better not cry.
- Hunger is the norm. You eat what they give you, when they give it to you. Bottles with blood and sperm are not strange to be given.
- Every form of touch or affection either hurts or becomes sexual. Babies will sometimes be breastfed, but this always goes together with sexual stimulation.
- Pain and pleasure are the main themes. Pleasure represents the front of the body (vaginal pleasure) and pain the back of the body (anal rape).
- There is a lot of sexual conditioning, in every way (spirit, soul, body).
- 'Normal' pain that does not necessarily have a sexual function, will often be turned into a sexual experience, so the baby learns to translate pain into pleasure.
- The spiritual world and its dimensions become more normal than the real world. In the first few years a child hardly sees the outside of a building, but it has learned to move in the spiritual dimensions. There are no boundaries to keep the child in the body.
- Bonding is a very closely monitored issue. They allow a child to bond, but they will make sure that the bond gets broken in a traumatic way. Only unhealthy / trauma bonding stays in place. For example, bonding with a nephilim or an incest bond with the father.

4. New Birth

NBI is already explained in a separate document. Please see detailed explanation.

5. New Birth - Coming of Age

After the New Birth has taken place, a foundation has been laid to continue the conditioning and start the programming.

Programming is done in many ways and it would be too much to explain it all. However, there are a few things that would be helpful to understand about the time between New Birth (13 months) and the Coming of Age (13 Years).

First it is helpful to know that the Presenter is created usually somewhere between the age of 3 and 4. This is also the time that the survivor will be more permanently in the 'normal' world, so they need a part that looks and acts normal. This is the Presenter.

The Presenter is the most separated from the core shields and has no idea what is going on. The surrogate family that the survivor is placed in, determines how the Presenter will develop. Usually you will either have a very strong Presenter, that is extremely functional, or you will find a very weak Presenter who often is placed in a mental hospital or something like that.

Principle of witchcraft: Many times you will find a weak child / family member who could be physically or mentally handicapped in some or other way. This is to hide the fact that this family member actually carries all the iniquity power in the family.

There are different locations that are used for the same kind of programming or conditioning:

Temple Mount: This is kind of Satan's headquarters on earth. Important rituals like birth, new birth, conceiving a hybrid, etc. take place underneath the Temple Mount.

Tibet: Many survivors go to this place to be programmed using the knowledge and the iniquity of the Tibetan monks to be programmed under the False Prophet.

Antarctica: Very important location for trans humanist programming.

Other recurring sites would be: Cern, Montauk, a few castles in Europe, Tavistock, Windsor Palace, etc.

If you want to know more about programming, it can be helpful to read some of the works of Fritz Springmeier. Dan Duval from Bride Ministries also does a lot of interviews with survivors who explain how their programming was installed. Please be aware that many of these survivors are still in the middle of their journey and that you have to be discerning in what is the truth...

6. Coming of Age

Around 12 or 13 years of age, there is a ritual that has to do with 'the coming of age,' or the bar/bat mitzvah. This ritual has a few important aspects. In Jewish tradition it is about a child becoming responsible for his own actions. They have learned the Torah and they are now responsible for keeping it.

It is from this age that God holds us responsible for our choices and actions. Psychology teaches us that the pre-frontal cortex of the brain is now fully developed and starts to function.

Because Satan knows this, he knows this is a very important age. In the cult, at this ritual, the survivor will state his loyalty to Satan as a father, a husband and his master.

The survivor will express his hatred towards God, Y'shua and the NBI (whom he holds responsible for all his pain and suffering) and kills a representation of his own NBI. New layers of death are built around the NBI, but this time it is done by the survivor himself.

This is very powerful in the spirit as the 13 yo is now in authority and agrees with Satan willingly that everything to do with the Creator God, Y'shua, the Bible, and so on, is evil - and he / she walks away from God - renounces God - WILLINGLY!

All the iniquity back to the fall is reinforced, but this time, the survivor willingly agrees with Satan and every person who rebelled against God and His Word; stating the 'FIVE I wills' that Satan also proclaimed when he rebelled against God (see Isaiah 14).

At this ritual the conception of a hybrid son also takes place. A marriage ritual with Satan is done, and in the Bridal Chamber - under The Chuppah, the survivor has sex with Satan that leads to the conception of their first hybrid son, who is usually born after about 4 months.

This ritual, together with the New Birth, is the most important ritual in the life of a survivor. You always have to go through these two events to make healing possible.

The new birth represents	The coming of age represents
Victim	Perpetrator
Opening heart to Y'shua	Opening heart to Satan
I have no control	I am in control

7. The Seals

After the ritual at 12 or 13 years old, you have the seals that are being placed every 13 years until 65 years of age.

Every event that involves core, you will need to go through all the "seals"

- ◆ Conception Identity
- ◆ Birth
- ◆ New Birth
- ◆ 13 year old - MOTHER (gives birth to her first nephilim son)
- ◆ 26 year old - WIFE - (marries her nephilim son)
- ◆ 39 Year old - gives birth to another nephilim son
- ◆ 54 year old - last birth of nephilim son
- ◆ 65 year old - last nephilim son gets sacrificed to seal in the person as a FULL 5 starslave of Satan.

She is used as a crone to officiate at all the rituals in her assigned region - national and international - to train up the younger girls for the next generation of slaves for Satan.

You always start with the age of the body and work your way down - including ALL the parts and pulling them forward out of the past in to this time and space and dimension.

Now, of course this sounds much easier than it is, but it is the protocol.

Core in the different domains

Before birth the foundations for the three cores shields have been installed. These three are then each used for their own purpose with an entity or nephilim that has the responsibility for the result.

You can see it like a big project that has 3 sub-projects. Each little project has it's own project manager, personnel, milestones etc. The big project manager sees the complete picture and knows what the result is going to look like.

Many survivors have the same basic structure:

- Apollyon domain
- Michael domain
- Alexander/Nimrod domain

The idea is that everything is about Nimrod. He was the first anti-Christ, who transformed into a hybrid and he is going to be the final anti-Christ, who represents the Satanic One New Man.

Many survivors report that the name of this Nimrod will be Alexander in his human form.

Nimrod, being the anti-Christ, has the character of Satan. This character is represented in the survivor through the Apollyon domain.

Since the character of Satan is not very attractive to the world, there is also the 'false light' or the 'false prophet.' This false prophet is represented in the survivor through the Michael domain.

Almost all survivors report about programming and experiments that have to do with trans-humanism. It is Satan's goal to deceive humanity by obtaining eternal life outside the need of Y'shua.

Through trans-humanism, he creates the Satanic One New Man. Nimrod is the ultimate example of a human being who transcended human life and turned into a hybrid.

Nimrod is what it is all about in the survivor. Most of their first hybrid sons are called Nimrod, they marry Nimrod etc.

In this manual and the previous one there are bits and pieces written about these domains.

Below there is a summary of the different domains:

(1) Michael Domain

This domain represents the false prophet. It is characterised by a lot of religious programming. This can be any religion, usually more than one. But there is always Christian programming involved. In this domain there is a lot of false light involved and it's very spiritual.

Energy centres, the flow of energy, the use of energy is maximised.

In a Christian setting this would manifest in very strong flowing of the gifts.

Often very prophetic, lots of miracles and healings and also a lot of 'words of knowledge.'

Because most people think that only God can do miracles, they will not check the source where it's coming from, and are therefore deceived.

The use of this energy will cause people to worship the person or the miracle, but not God.

In churches it will also cause that the Word is misinterpreted and that a lot of deception is flowing in to the Body of Messiah.

Many of the parts in this domain will know Satan as Lucifer, his fake name.

The sexual things that happen in this domain are focused on seduction and pleasure. But also the whole tantric sex area happens here. Many pastors are being seduced by usually very 'prophetic' and attractive survivors.

(2) Apollyon / Satan

This domain represents the character of Satan, pure beast-like evil. In this domain the child will eventually give up its humanity and become a beast, a nephilim, a hybrid, or whatever they believe they will need to become to survive.

When in a ritual, the child will be driven by a super natural rage which enables the entity Apollyon to take over and then the most brutal, horrific things happen.

In this domain you will find the parts that have to do with Hitler, King George VI, the nephilims, Satan etc.

The sexual things that happen here are much more focused on pain and domination. Bestiality, BDSM, etc. happen in this domain.

(3) Nimrod / Alexander

This domain represents the anti-Christ. It is the One New Man that is not limited by the boundaries that normal man experiences.

You will find super-human strength and a lot of supernatural abilities that have to do with energy.

In this domain you will find the 'perfect, amazing supernatural sexual experiences', "true love", ecstasy and demonically charged orgasm, this is also the domain of the WIFE - 26 yo - who is married to her nephilim son. She is totally addicted to him because of these supernaturally charged sexual experiences - and she will fight with all her might to keep this marriage bond in place. Do not think she will just walk away from him. She will tell you yes, she will divorce him - but in actual fact, she is lying. Satan bargains on this addiction to keep her his slave.

It can be that she is unmarried - and so she is so fulfilled with this arrangement - she doesn't want / need a physical husband.

Or, she marries a man who is not interested in sex and leaves her unfulfilled and very vulnerable - and so she won't let go of this addiction.

You can also find the 'sex-less' parts here - the conflicting opposites of the very sexual trained parts as sex queens - they are like the Virgin Mother / very modest and old fashioned in their ways - very religious and very judgmental and critical of prostitutes and women with loose morals.

They can be either male or female and sex is just an overrated thing. They are very unaware of the Hegelian Dialect programming inside of them - where on the opposite end of these very "modest" chaste parts are prostitutes and super-charged sexual parts trained to seduce and take out any man they are assigned to.

Structures of the core shield

Now we know more about the different domains, but it's still important to also know the way these domains are structured.

So far we have seen that at conception the foundation for the three domains is put in.

Then, at New Birth they all come together in the NBI - they then split off into the three core shields each representing a domain.

Each core shield is split up in three functions:

- Daughter
- Mother
- Wife

So, for example, in the Apollyon domain you will find:

- the daughter of the beast,
- the mother of the beast and
- the wife of the beast.

For all domains this works the same.

Because we are talking about core shields, we know that there is a linear history, so you will find these three aspects of the one core shield in different ages.

You might be working with different daughters of the beast at some point.

What might help is to place all the daughters in a room and the one with the most authority can step forward.

When working with this daughter, you will know that they all will move back to the core shield when ready.

Very important!!

Working with these aspects, you'll find that the mother and the wife are usually unaware of each other.

When confronted that they are really the same and that they're having a sexual relationship with their own son, they can be hugely shocked.

Both mother and wife are completely addicted and dependent on their son.

The mother because she believes that they can't exist outside of each other and the wife because of the sexual addiction.

The mother and the wives are often the queens in the system.

DAY 2

2. Core Names

How to find Core names

INTRODUCTION TO MT

MRT is amazing because it allows your body the opportunity to communicate back to you what its needs are and how to best solve them. And it does this free for the one who learns how to do MT.

When your body hears truth it is strengthened and when it hears a lie it is weakened. This obviously lines up with biblical principles such as truth leads to life and lies lead to death.

MRT accesses the wisdom of your subconscious mind (God's Word for "subconscious mind" is "heart"). Your subconscious monitors and maintains all operations within your body and it can easily hear spoken words and it will respond to them. Actually, it also responds to thoughts, which is why both tester and testee should maintain a neutral thought pattern so as not to mess up the MRT responses.

The physiological responses of your body to truth and lies can be measured using a lie detector or you can measure the responses using MRT. The nice thing is, MRT is free, requires no instruments, can be easily learned by anyone, and will reveal to you exactly what your body needs in order to live in maximum health. Now, how priceless is that!

When starting MRT we suggest you begin with a practice question.

Speak the following simple truth: "My name is insert your name."

That should result in your muscles testing strong.

Then you state, "My name is use someone else's name," and you will discover that the muscle being tested is weaker.

If your muscle is stronger when you say your name is (someone else's name) then your polarity is reversed, and you will need to fix that before continuing.

There are simple ways of restoring your polarity so it is flowing in the right direction. One key reason polarity is reversed is because of lack of salt in your body. You can see if this is the reason by drinking a glass of water with 1/8 teaspoon of Himalayan salt in it. Then see if your polarity is back to normal.

The important principle here is that MRT gives you answers from your heart (i.e. subconscious), and the language of your heart includes belief/faith, pictures/visions, emotions and flow.

So if I am picturing and believing one thing, but saying something different with my lips, the answer coming back through MRT will be from what I am picturing and believing, rather than from what I am saying.

Out of our hearts "flow the issues of life" (Proverbs 4:23 NKJV). I want my heart and my lips to line up which is what makes my speech persuasive (Proverbs 16:23).

Discord between my heart and my lips bring discord to my life. Whenever my heart is in conflict with my lips, my heart wins the battle.

Finding out the CORE NAMES

If you are a counsellor, and you have a client who has given you a list of names, but you are not sure which one is the CORE IDENTITY, it is VERY helpful to do MT with a TRAINED therapist who is also very sensitive to the leading of the Holy Spirit.

The true core will be split into three core shields who will all have a linear history. These are not alters / identities, but they are a primary representation of the core. Later in life these core shields will be subjected to programming and in each core shield a whole system with alters will be created.

The person who comes for counselling never is a representation of the core. We call this the Host or the Presenter. The Presenter is created later in life, usually somewhere between 3 and 4 years old. The Presenter often has no idea what world he/she comes from and what he/she will have to go through.

How to identify core

Getting to core can be a process of many weeks, months or even years. How fast you get to core depends on both the counsellor and the survivor.

As a counsellor you need to be sharp and not be led astray in bunny trails - of which there are many - carefully pre-programmed by the handler and also orchestrated by the internal cult aligned parts. Getting stuck in the programming happens before you realise it, and if it doesn't lead back to core, it will add a lot of time to the process.

To identify core you will need the help of Neshamah. Only the True Core is connected to the true Neshamah.

You will need to get out your complete TOOLBOX for BODY, SOUL AND SPIRIT - and work with a trained therapist to find out from the list of names who have presented themselves in the counselling sessions - who is actually CORE.

- ❖ Who is first?
- ❖ Who is second?
- ❖ Who is third?

DAY 2

3. Role of the 13 year old and her life onwards

Personal view of the 12-13 year old coming of age Ritual

Background of the Coming of Age Ritual:

Life in the cult is not very different than life in many cultures across the world. Many societies celebrate the time of life when a young person is no longer considered a child but is now an adult member of society, responsible for their actions and participating in more grown up activities (think of the Bar and Bat Mitzvah's of Jewish culture and other celebrations held in indigenous communities). It is the time of life when the prefrontal cortex (which can be thought of like a "CEO" controlling the ability to plan, problem-solve and organize) of the brain located just behind the forehead both grows in size and forms greater connections with the rest of the brain (especially the areas governing emotion and impulse) by an increase of neural pathways (synapses). The Coming of Age ritual is a time when a survivor transitions from being an innocent victim to becoming an active participant or victimizer in the life of the cult. During that time, the participant makes vows to Satan (the 5 "I Wills" of Isaiah 14:12-13) and chooses to side with him. At the ritual she kills a representative of her new birth identity/baby and takes on Satan's rage (she also conceives her first hybrid son). Well-trained and weaponized, she now becomes the one who feels nothing (except for an extreme unnatural anger fueled by Satan's anger) and becomes an attacker, killer, assassin, etc., acting out against others.

A Survivor's Experience and Explanation of the Inner Rage and Evil:

By the time you are 12 years old and ready to participate in the coming of age ritual for becoming an adult, you already realize that you are one of the evilest people not only in this world but also in other dimensions or parallel worlds. You know full well what you are capable of doing and are well-acquainted with your evilness.

But then you also have this uncontrollable anger against God in you. You feel that it's His fault that everything in your life went so wrong:

- because you somehow know of course, that your life is not "normal",
- that there is so much darkness in it and in you
- you also see Lucifer as THE Light, but nevertheless, you know that this is false light... evil light,
- deep in your spirit you know that this is pure evil, but this is you... and you are angry!!

You feel that you want to punish Y'shua for everything that happens to you and you hate the baby that gave her heart to Jesus.

There are no words to describe how much you hate this little baby!!

And then they bring it to you. They tell you it's THE baby... the baby that they say has Jesus in it.

And now, you think that you can kill Jesus when you kill the baby.

So, you are killing it ...

and you kill it in a most horrible ritualistic way... slowly...

You will never forget the eyes of the baby while you slowly kill it...
You think it's Jesus who is looking at you and who is full of fear and begs you to not kill him... or at least, do it fast...

At some stage, the anger in you is growing and the rage in you is so big that you think it will kill you from the inside out...
This anger is so incredibly strong it feels your soul, mind, and body will explode...

So, you do the last steps of killing the baby (and Jesus in it)... and all the rage explodes in this last step to finally kill the baby.

And then they applaud you...!!!

They tell you that you just killed the Son of God and your evilness is so strong now that if you will train hard you might be able to earn your special seat at the prince of darkness' castle... which is hell!

And you know it ... but for you it's now the only direction to go, because you killed the Son of God.

There is no way out for you anymore.
No way out at all.
You can't be saved anymore...
No salvation for you...
You belong forever to the darkness.

And all the things in your life make sense now...

You weren't born from light and God. You remember the blue Satanic lightning that killed you in the "womb" and even more, you remember the cold evil light that brought you back to life.

You remember every time when they killed you and the darkness resurrected you...

You remember every Nephilim's kiss,
the breath of leviathan to resurrect you, the moon goddess sitting at your chest, breathing cold evil moonlight in your spirit to bring you back to life, the Sea Goddess' tongue massaging your lungs and gills for resurrection under water...

The fire,
the air,
all the spirits of the elements dancing in you,
Merlin's staff ticking your heartbeat again...

You only remember the darkness bringing you back to life...Hundreds of times.

You know you belong to them...

You know there's no salvation for those who were born from the darkness and, you believe that you are born from the darkness AND you killed the Son of God!!

You believe God is raging against you and the corresponding rage in you grows rapidly...

Then you have a son with Lucifer...
His OWN son!!

You levelled up so quickly...
Your evilness grew with:
 every fight,
 every killing,
 every ritual,
 every battle,
 every time your trained kids to be like you...

And you had Lucifer's son inside of you!!

You'll have other Nephilim sons too.

But going through the abyss ending up in Lucifer's "arms" as:
 his bride...
 his favored one who is chosen to give birth to his son...

Is a totally different kind of evilness!!

After Lucifer himself has planted his seed inside of you - you are changed forever.

They will applaud you again.

You are crowned now with evilness.
 They show you a mirror and you look into your eyes – which have turned from blue to black...
 Their mirror shows you that the evilness has reached your eyes, and with that, it has touched the last piece of your soul...

You believe there is nothing left inside of you that could be good.
 There's nothing...
 only evilness.

And Lucifer's baby in you is feeding from your blood... feeding from your energy and,
 growing fast because of your rage.

It is fed by blood and gives you in exchange more rage, more anger, which then let him grow faster.

Giving birth to this son kills you in many ways ...
 But your son will resurrect you.
 The little Lucifer baby son will resurrect you!

Your evilness has no borders anymore. And because you believe that you cannot be saved at all anymore, you grow in your evilness...

It doesn't matter to you anymore what you do, because you know you need to be better than others, you need to grow in your ranking,
you have to level up...
It's your own salvation plan.

You know you cannot be saved so you try to save yourself somehow.

You try to be the best evil one you can be, because you believe that will help you to stay closer to Lucifer.

You hope that the closer you are to Lucifer, the less your eternal torture will be.

Because, you know that you will end up in hell anyway, now it's only all about how badly you will be tortured.

And you know exactly how evil the torture is if you fail and don't do your job... if somebody else is better than you and if you lose a fight.

Levelling you... getting higher in ranking...
growing in evilness....

Because you believe there is no way of salvation for you, your evilness is growing and growing.

You try to help yourself, because you believe that's the only thing you can do.
You were made for serving the darkness.

DAY 2

4. Jezebel Manipulation

Information on the Spirit of Jezebel

Counsellor

Background information:

- ◆ Jezebel starts with idolatry and astrology.
- ◆ Mother / child cult begins.
- ◆ Jezebel's name means: un-exalted; without cohabitation.

Her aim and characteristics

Driven from inside by:

- perversion,
- rebellion,
- pride,
- arrogance,
- haughtiness,
- sorcery and witchcraft, etc.

Everything is done to satisfy SELF in every area:

- Materialistic and in the physical (flesh).
- Also unteachable, independent, arrogant, etc.

It can manifest through women, as well as through men.

When it manifests through men:

- ◆ Hard-headedness: "I will do as I please!"
- ◆ Wants to destroy and remove the true prophets of God (1 Kings 18:3-4).
- ◆ Resists the working of the Holy Spirit.
- ◆ Always attempts to destroy and break down God-ordained leadership, and to satisfy SELF.
- ◆ Abuse authority and leadership-positions (e.g. in the family, church, works, etc)
- ◆ Always attempts to infiltrate leadership.
- ◆ Instigates fear (e.g. in work-situation, children, marriage, relationships, etc.)
- ◆ Goes hand in hand with idolatry and witchcraft, which were part and parcel of the life of queen Jezebel (2 Kings 9:22).
- ◆ Draws forth the Ahab-spirit in others (the Ahab-spirit 'sulks' because he cannot have his way, becomes depressed and angry. Refuses to speak ('stilstuipen') and tries thus to manipulate others).
- ◆ It reacts in the flesh (e.g. threats, "tantrums", etc.).
- ◆ Manipulates people on emotional level, trying to get them to do what Jezebel wants.
- ◆ Takes cover behind religious works.
- ◆ Lies and cheats.

- ◆ Distorts the meaning of peoples' words.

When Jezebel gets control, e.g. in a church, such a body or organization can get destroyed.

- ◆ It starts manifesting in the flesh, with rigid laws.
- ◆ The flow of the Spirit gets hindered and obstructed.
- ◆ Disobedience replaces obedience.
- ◆ Works of the flesh replace inspiration by the Holy Spirit.
- ◆ It comes under the curse of the law.

Modus operandi of a False Religion

- ◆ They intimidate with an attitude of "we know it all".
- ◆ Praying incessantly and stays before the Lord.
- ◆ Very learned, have studied for many years and the laity can tell them nothing.
- ◆ Manipulate others with their theology.
- ◆ Manipulate others from out of the position of their leadership.
- ◆ Manipulate others with spiritual knowledge, experiences and overspirituality.
- ◆ They always hear from the Lord.
- ◆ "We are the men ... women must listen what we say" or vica versa.
- ◆ Legalistic and conservative. Goes to cell-meetings, puts the leader or speaker in a bad light; or practices "counsel-hopping".
- ◆ Accuses with the purpose to hurt.
- ◆ Manipulates with tears.
- ◆ Humiliates and runs down others, "cuts" with the Word.
- ◆ Talkative.
- ◆ Sex and as soon as desires are fulfilled, feelings of guilt.
- ◆ Rage and fury.
- ◆ Confusion (delusion, misleading).
- ◆ PMS – Permanent Marital Stress!!
- ◆ Manipulates with money.
- ◆ Clever, manipulative speakers.

The Jezebel spirit controls persons, marriages, families, bloodlines, congregations, etc., with 5 cords.

- ◆ Witchcraft
- ◆ Compromise
- ◆ Sexual iniquity
- ◆ DIM = Domination, Intimidation, Manipulation
- ◆ Religion

According to Isaiah 47, she is responsible for:

- ◆ Senility in old age: verse 6
- ◆ Drug abuse: verse 9
- ◆ Occult, witchcraft: verse 9
- ◆ Illegitimate sexual sins: verse 8
- ◆ Fear: verse 12 (works through e.g. mass-murderers, rapists, etc.)
- ◆ Astrology: verse 13

A strong mother figure

- son will have a “false self”
- it will manifest in recklessness or revolution or breaking away. The man will try to throw off the smothering blanket of feminization.

If both parents are strong and compete for leadership

- psychological confusion
- false personalities in children. A strong, dominant mother / grandmother and passive father produces double-minded children / grandchildren.

Scriptural consequences where the Jezebel Spirit rules

- ◆ Throw her on a bed of sickness:
 - Most cancers are Jezebelic judgment.
- ◆ Murders her children:
 - Homosexuality
 - Divorce is a product of Jezebel
 - Female domination
 - Persons coming from broken families, usually carries with them strong spirits of death.
- ◆ Extreme persecution – extreme judgment:
 - Schizophrenia: mental disturbed ness characterized by a lack of contact with reality and through the disintegration of personality.
 - Schizothymia: preceding schizophrenia.
 - Double-mindedness: James 1:7-8 ... “Has two souls”.
 - Doubt and instability. A false personality which causes weakness and insecurity. “Jezebel’s child within”. The “child” is an alternative personality - weak and insecure, fearful, rebellious, sexually abnormal or other characteristics against the true self.

- ◆ Fruits:
 - Manipulation
 - Domination
 - Intimidation
 - Homosexuality (Jezebel murders her sons' masculinity)
 - Obsession to control or to be in control
 - Blasphemy
 - Incest

DAY 2

5. Laws of Opposites & Retribution operating in Witchcraft

Two Laws operating in Witchcraft

1. The Law of Opposites

According to this "law" everything exists, indeed can only exist, in tension with its own opposite. Far from being mutually exclusive, each pair in opposition can only be experienced by "accepting" this dynamic tension and holding each as equally true although they are diametrically opposed to one another.

For example, "safe" exists in tension with "abandoned", so that until one has experienced "abandoned" in its most primal form, one cannot truly experience being "safe".

"Safe" and "abandoned" are to be held in dynamic tension so that one experiences both states of being at the same time. If a child is in a "safe" place, he or she experiences "abandonment". If the child has been "abandoned" in some location, he or she is to experience "safety" at the same time.

Since the opposites are equal and indistinguishable from one another, any word spoken may have the opposite meaning. A "blessing" may indeed be a "curse". Praise may be punishment. "Good" is the same as "bad". The effect is that nothing spoken in witchcraft can be taken at face value and may indeed have the opposite meaning.

The "Law of Opposites" is what allows generational witches to serve as religious leaders.

A witch may lead public worship in a Christian church singing praise to the God of Israel and talking about how much she loves Him with the true meaning of cursing and hating Him.

A witch may be a pastor or a priest celebrating the Eucharist with the congregation and speaking the appropriate words of blessing with the opposite effect, and cursing all these "ignorant fools" who insist on worshipping a powerless god.

2. The Law of Retribution

This "law" requires any incantations, curse, blessing, hex, vex, spell or magical action that does not attach to the victim and accomplish its mission, must return to the witch who sent it.

This means the fallen angels attached to those words or actions must also return to the witch. These normally vent their frustration on the witch. There are a myriad of reasons why the words or the actions rebound on the witch ranging from the victim's taking the spiritual precautions and praying for spiritual protection to the failure of the witch to properly execute the required actions or speak the words with the necessary precision.

Because of this "law", a witch will practice until the words can be said perfectly or the actions be done flawlessly. The young witch-in-training often suffers a lot of retribution as he or she is learning the ropes of witchcraft.

Also because of this "law", a witch will study the intended victim until he or she is confident of the area of weakness or vulnerability that would allow the magic to attach and cause harm. Only a careless witch would attempt to send magic against someone they did not know well.

What does the Bible say?

Proverbs 26:2 "Like the sparrow in her wandering, like the swallow in her flying, so the causeless curse does not alight."

Working with Survivors of Generational Fertility Cults

Therapy with active generational fertility cult survivors is dangerous for the counselor as the whole circle of witches is summoning all of their "power" to prevent the therapist from "conquering" their witch and "stealing their power".

Curses, hexes, vexes, spells, and every other form of magic are being used against the counselor, the spouse, the children, the friends, the office, the house, the pets, the property, and the vehicles on a regular basis by the witch alters of the client and the rest of their circle.

Spiritual protection is absolutely necessary for the counselor. The counselor also needs to be praying for everyone and everything else on a regular basis. Ignorance and denial are no protection against genuine spiritual evil.

Only by cultivating a deep and personal relationship with Jahweh, God of Israel, will any counselor be prepared to pray for protection from the circle much less makes any headway in working with the client.

Getting the witch off of her "hallowed" ground and preventing her from dedicating the office as her "sacred" ground may make the attacks less intense and often allows the work to proceed.

The counselor needs to dedicate his or her office to Jahweh of Israel and Jeshua the Messiah as "holy ground", asking daily that it be cleansed of anything of the evil one. Ask that it be a healing place for all who come through the door, a place of truth where lies will lose their power and be exposed, and a place where the will of God is done "on earth as it is in Heaven".

The counselor needs to ask of God that no fallen angel or foreign human spirit be allowed to take executive control of any client who comes into the office.

Ask the God of Israel if any thing in the office has been placed there to make it a "sacred" ground for witchcraft or be used as a portal for fallen angels or astral projections.

If the God of Israel shows the counselor something specific, then either dispose of it (if it was a gift) or ask God to cleanse it of all evil.

Then ask God to place a perimeter of protection around the office that no fallen angel, no foreign human spirit, and no astral projection is allowed to enter and no portal be allowed to open.

Having prayed, be aware that God does not use magic nor will He violate the will of any part of the client, so the counselor must continue to be on guard against fallen angels, foreign human spirits, and witchcraft games.

The Future of Generational Fertility Cults

Generational fertility cults have fallen. Those within witchcraft are in deep depression and despair. The various fertility cult groups made a gamble for power many years ago with another sophisticated occult group.

The agreement was that they would be in complete control by Christmas Eve of 1998, which meant they would "take over" the other group, or they would be in submission to them. In the fertility cult understanding, a living re-embodiment of Isis (the life-giver, the mother) would choose their cause to be just and grant the sufficient "power" to be in control.

If the living re-embodiment rejected their cause then they would be under the reign of Nephthys (the life-taker, the queen of the dead).

DAY 3

1. Activating the Will

The Will

PLEASE NOTE:

We are all taken captive to some degree more than others. You will learn in this teaching that the battle is around your WILL - how ACTIVE are you in taking up your WILL to make a choice and take a stand against the bondages of the enemy in your life?

No matter what your background is - what has been done to you - how seriously and deeply they have wounded you - there is no such thing as "I can't" in the Kingdom of Yeshua.

When Yeshua took the Cup in the Garden of Getsemene, He said: "Father, not My Will, but let Thy will be done."

He drank the cup to the last drop - leaving nothing left in the cup. This act made a way for you and me to get the freedom of our will to make a free-will choice of whom we will serve and what we choose we will believe.

When you were a little child you did not have any choice .. and the evil people in your life chose things for you without your consent. But now that you are older, you now have a choice of which way you will go and whom you will serve.

Coming from an extreme DID/SRA background means that you have been made a slave - someone with no will - and all that is expected of you is total obedience.

This teaching is CRUCIAL for mind control victims - to break the chains of slavery and to stand up and push back on the evil boundaries that have been placed around you - and then to step in to the freedom already paid for by the Blood of Yeshua.

MAY YOU LEARN TO ARISE TO YOUR LEGAL RIGHT ATTAINED FREEDOM!!

Introduction

A man's will is the centre of who he really is.

"The will of man can be regarded as his true self, because it truly represents him... Our emotions give expression to the way we feel; our intellect tells us only what we think, but our will communicates what we want."

- Watchman Nee

Man can say no to God and God will always respect his choice.

God will never overrule the will of Man.

Luke 22.42 "... not My will, but Yours, be done." (Psalm 8.4-5; Psalm 82.6)

Submission must be willing – not forced. Yeshua / Jesus chose the Father's Will. Many times your will is against God's Will BUT you make a choice to do God's Will.

The Will

Our WILL is one of the most important aspects of who we are – it is the center of our being.

God's Will for us is the BEST, it is PERFECT, and Holy.

Man's will is sovereign, free and independent. Satan's will is polluted, he steals your potential, and he binds you!

"The will of man can be regarded as his true self, because it truly represents him ... our emotions give expression to the way we feel; our intellect tells us only what we think; but our will communicates what we want."¹

Can you believe it?

Man can say NO to God, and God will always respect his choice! God – the Creator of the entire universe – will never overrule your WILL!

Luke 22.42 "Saying, Father, if You are willing, remove this cup from Me; yet not My will, but [always) Yours be done."

Day 3: Activating the Will

Out of our LOVE for the LORD, we WILLINGLY submit to Him and His Ways. God will never force His Will upon us. God the Father did not even force His Will upon His Son – Y’shua [Jesus) chose the Father’s Will. Many times your will is against God’s Will BUT you can make a choice to repent and submit to do God’s Will. Picking up your cross daily is where your will crosses with God’s Will, you pick up your cross, and follow the Lord!

Unlike God the Father, the kingdom of darkness will try in every way possible to bind you and keep you in bondage, that it is very difficult – although not impossible – to WILL to chose and reach out to God.

A. The Potential of the Will

Man will not maintain victory if he does not exercise and activate his will. Satan will always try to hold on to our will. It is our will that resists him. As long as we resist him in the area of our will, he can have no access.

With the will, man resists the devil and keeps his freedom.

I. THE LAW OF THE SPIRIT: PERMISSION OF THE WILL

Nothing concerning man can be achieved without the permission of his will. (Satan cannot just put a curse on you or put you in chains.)

- i) The highest level of creation is seen in the creation of man.

Psalm 8.4-5 “What is man that You are mindful of him, and the son of (earthborn) man that You care for him? Yet You have made him but a little lower than God (or heavenly beings), and You have crowned him with glory and honor.”

Psalm 82.6 “I said, You are gods (since you judge on My behalf, as My representatives); indeed, all of you are children of the Most High.”

ii) In what respect are we like God?

The will of man gives him a self-determined strength so that he is able to resist God and establish a kind of sovereignty for himself.

The centre of sovereignty is freedom of choice. You choose what you want to think, how you want to live, etc. God does not want us to be dominated by anyone. God could've used fear to force us to serve Him, but He has given us a choice.

He wants that everything we do in our relationship with Him will be because we love Him and we want to do it, e.g. tithing. God sees that as worthy. Millions choose to resist God and go to hell. When we choose to serve and obey God, He gets glorified. It is so sad to think that millions choose to resist God and go to hell!

iii) Because man has a free will, it makes him a type of God on earth. He is not religious or divine.

MAN IS ...

♦ A creature of dominion

Romans 5.17 “For if because of one man’s trespass (lapse, offense) death reigned through that one, much more surely will those who receive (God’s) overflowing grace (unmerited favor) and the free gift of righteousness (putting them into right standing with Himself) reign as kings in life through the one Man Jesus Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed One).”

♦ A creature of decision-making

iv) God can do nothing without the will of man.

If you make a decision God will give you the necessary confirmation. Until you decide, NOTHING will change and you will not experience the provision of God (Israel had to choose to leave Egypt). In deliverance you determine what God must help you with. You must submit to God, repent of your involvement in sin, and God sets you free! In the past, we would pray for hours with people, we would repent for their sins and do the deliverance – then God taught us this powerful lesson – each person has to carry his own sins to the cross!

v) The will of man acts as a protection against every evil work. (Ephesians 4.26-27; 1 John 5.18).

As long as you choose to live with your circumstances and problems NOTHING will change! Get sick and tired of your circumstances!

How do we open the doors for the enemy?

We play in the devil's playground!

Which do you choose?

Ephesians 4:26-27 “When angry, do not sin; do not ever let your wrath (your exasperation, your fury or indignation) last until the sun goes down. Leave no [such] room or foothold for the devil [give no opportunity to him].”

PLACE: “topos” (Topic). This is an area, a place, or a surrounding occupied by a person or object (this area can be defined).

1 John 5:18 “18 We know [absolutely] that anyone born of God does not [deliberately and knowingly] practice committing sin, but the One Who was begotten of God carefully watches over and protects him [Christ’s divine presence within him preserves him against the evil], and the wicked one does not lay hold (get a grip) on him or touch [him].”

“Does not lay hold (get a grip)” in Greek

haptomai

- to tie,
- to cling to,
- and to attach.

We can give the enemy a legal right to attach himself to certain areas of our lives and to influence us – when we open doors to the occult, pornography, ungodly TV viewing, gambling, addiction, and so forth – we are making un-Godly covenants with the enemy.

WARNING! Many times we are not even aware we are playing in the enemy's playground because he has blinded us and kept us ignorant. God is very serious about this! 101 times in the Bible He warns us to stay away from the occult.

We can try to be religious and say "I'll just plead the Blood of Y'shua [Jesus) over me and I will be fine!"

What ignorance! If I step into Satan's territory, the Blood of Y'shua [Jesus) is not there – it is only when I walk in OBEDIENCE to God's Commandments and play in HIS Playground, will I be protected by the Blood of Y'shua [Jesus).

If I CHOOSE to play in Satan's playground, he has got me – he now has LEGAL right to put me in bondage.

II. LAW OF THE SPIRIT – THE ACTIVE WILL

God requires the will of man to be active to reach the Will of God. In contrast Satan requires a passive will to achieve his goal. Note, so much in our society (drugs/ medications, music, entertainment, alcohol, and so forth) is designed by the kingdom of darkness to make your will "asleep".

- i) When man is neutral and refuses to make a decision, God can and will do nothing. Salvation appeals to the will of man, not his emotions.
- ii) Spiritual life begins with a choice; it is a DECISION to serve God and to make God's Will your own (tithing, worship – lift hands, forgiveness, etc.).

- iii) Spiritual unity takes place when the will of man is united with God's Will. It does not imply that man ceases to exist and that his will does not function or exist any longer, but that he chooses to bring his will in line with the Will of God. We do not stop at the cross; we die to self – BUT the grave is EMPTY! We have to LIVE with Messiah!
- iv) Our DECISIONS confirm God's Will in our lives. When you reach out and embrace God's Will, then God acts.
- v) Your will is connected to God's Will. Your will NEVER STOPS TO FUNCTION – the choice is always there ... to choose LIFE and God's Ways, or DEATH and the way of Satan.
- vi) God does not require of you to relinquish your will and personality. God activates your being in every area – mind, body, consciousness, spirit and life, to bring it into FULLNESS.
- vii) God will NEVER exchange His will with the will of man. He requires intelligent, willing co-operation with His Will.
- viii) Deliverance cannot be maintained without an active will. You are able to resist.
- ix) "Evil spirits...require an empty brain and a passive will" (Watchman Nee). A passive will is an open doorway to Satan. Satan knows how to work if your will does not.
- x) Christians are deceived when they want God to make all their decisions. They are afraid of the responsibility of taking decisions that will determine their future direction, therefore they try to find themselves counsellors, leaders, pastors and/or ministers to make these decisions for them. The final decision is always your own responsibility!

NB: You are always responsible for your decisions ... you can NEVER escape from that responsibility.

- xi) Deception is a result of passivity. Passivity is a will that does not work.
- xii) It is a pity that it is usually totally committed Christians desiring to do God's Will ... ("I will submit myself to God in all circumstances") ... who are deceived and believe that all circumstances in their lives are directed by God's Will. When you accept every situation to be God's Will, you will never confront something that has been placed on you by Satan.

NB. God's Kingdom is establish by confrontation.

xiii) Deception can develop when:

- ◆ There are idols in our hearts ("I've made up my mind what I want."): Ezekiel 14
- ◆ There is hate, bitterness and unforgiveness: 1 John 2.9-11

1 John 2.9-11 "Whoever says he is in the Light and [yet) hates his brother [Christian, born-again child of God his Father) is in darkness even until now. Whoever loves his brother [believer) abides (lives) in the Light, and in It or in him there is no occasion for stumbling or cause for error or sin. But he who hates (detests, despises) his brother [in Christ) is in darkness and walking (living) in the dark; he is straying and does not perceive or know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes."

III. LAW OF THE SPIRIT – THE DISCERNING WILL

The will is that which stands between good and evil. When it is linked to God's Will, it results in harmony between God and man and the Power of God is released for total deliverance.

The unrenewed-subconscious mind is like the rubbish in the bin ... the WILL is the LID!

If you have suffered serious traumas in your life, then the brain is so designed by God to block out the bad memories. It is important that you try to remember the memories of your past life ...

How much do you remember?

If your brain has blocked out a certain time-period of your life and you can't remember what happened, you need to ask the Lord what happened in your past – that you give HIM permission to open up that area and to show you what happened – you break the demonic seal placed over that time-period of your life – you break the time-clock of Satan where he is keeping you bound emotionally tied to that time-period. God will shine His Light of Truth and revelation in your sub-conscious mind and your spirit to show you what happened. YOU MUST GIVE PERMISSION TO GOD TO SHOW YOU!

For healing to take place I must remember and I must be connected to the emotions involved even if the trauma took place many years ago!

- i) The will is a sensor for all thoughts that enter from the subconscious mind into the conscious mind.
- ii) Our subconscious is a reservoir for all bad experiences from our past. The enemy uses the subconscious to project thoughts into our conscious mind.
- iii) The will receives or rejects these thoughts. We must resist the oppressions and fears of the subconscious with our will. We must ask that the LORD's Light of Truth come to expel the darkness of our pain and lies.
- iv) It takes a lot of energy from the will, and even physical energy, to suppress the welling up of emotions from the subconscious that come up against the will. Deep emotional upheavals or problems that push upward will weaken the will ... this could make you always tired².
- v) When the will does not resist Satan in a specific area anymore, he takes control.

The ANSWER → Possess the Land:

- vi) Renewal of the mind strengthens the will and loosens the bondages. It is also very important to receive healing from emotional pain, it is to be renewed in your mind (Romans 12.2).
- vii) To live under stress for long periods of time leads to passivity – you become so tired that you do not want to exercise your will anymore. “BURN-OUT” – prolonged ministry or exhaustion.
- viii) Tremendous trauma during childhood causes the mind to suppress or dissociate. The will tries to keep the memories in the subconscious mind. When the person reaches the age of 30 years or older, the will is tired of fighting and emotional outbursts or depression, etc. results.

(See: J2W Book 3 Emotional Pain and Restoring Relationships PART 3 ... Understanding trauma and dissociation)

² Headaches can result from inner conflict and/or trying to suppress pain.

Activating the Will Give to the enemy legal right to penetrate certain areas of our lives.

Ephesians 4.26-27: “Topos” (Topic)

- Area, place,
- surrounding occupied by a person or object (area can be defined).

1 John 5.18: “Haptomai”

- Take
- To tie,
- to cling to,
- To attach.

We can give the enemy a legal right to attach himself to a certain area of our lives and to influence us;

- e.g. Palm reading,
- Pornography,
- Acupuncture.

B. Passivity of the Will

i) Basic Principles of Discernment

- (a) “God wants the believer to work with Him by exercising his will and employing all his abilities so that he can be filled with the Holy Spirit.
- (b) To simplify his endeavors, the evil spirit requires that the believer has to be passive in his will and to renounce the use of some or all of his abilities.”

Watchman Nee

ii) Symptoms of passivity

- (a) Apathy - waits for a power outside himself to move him
- (b) Many unfinished tasks - God requires endurance, it means to complete what you have started. A passive person will be quick to respond, but cannot carry it through. Attracted and distracted.
- (c) Not able to concentrate – concentration is part of endurance. Of necessity you have to think things through and carry things through in order for work to be completed.
- (d) Not able to make decisions or take initiative - afraid of making choices; wants others to be responsible for their decisions.

Always in fear and doubt – controlled by circumstances. (People with deep emotional problems experience difficulty in this area).

NB. You will NEVER come out of a deep problem unless you decide that you want to.

- (e) Double-mindedness, unstable - a passive person makes a decision and then withdraws, afraid that he has made the wrong choice. Never knows if he is in or out of God's Will.
- (f) Physical laziness, mechanical actions - what happens to you spiritually, affects you physically; e.g. Homes are a mess, poor personal hygiene, garden around home is unkept, etc.

iii) Burn-out, Stress, Exhaustion

Beware of:

- Competitiveness / Rivalry. Must always overwork.
- Wrong priorities. Work before family.
- Emotionally withdrawn from people.
- Easily irritated.
- Physical symptoms: backache, stomach ulcers, headaches,
- Relationship with God suffers as a result.
- Begin to postpone things - so many problems that you postpone things until there are so many that they overwhelm you. You will not be able to compete; you will avoid decisions and responsibilities and will be overwhelmed by passivity.

NB. Satan has a way of burying us under our problems. We need to face the mountain - not hide from it.

Causes for passivity

- Overwork / Exhaustion.
- Extended ministry.
- Domineering parent / spouse / friend.
- Illness and breakdown.
- No resistance - headaches, oppression etc.
- Deception; e.g. when you believe God wants you sick.
- Emotional pain, trauma, unhappiness.

C. Bondages over the Will Deception occurs where people want to 'walk in the Spirit'. It does not mean that you are becoming passive. It is to receive Godly guidance through your spirit, convey it to your mind, and then your will comes into action. It does not mean that you switch your mind off and allow God to "switch in". Spiritual does not equal mystical.

The will of man is bound by deception; through incorrect interpretation of the Word.

i) 'Christ lives in me'

Galatians 2.20 "I have been crucified with Christ [in Him I have shared His crucifixion]; it is no longer I who live, but Christ (the Messiah) lives in me; and the life I now live in the body I live by faith in (by adherence to and reliance on and complete trust in) the Son of God, Who loved me and gave Himself up for me."

X Wrong concept: I do not live at all ✓ Truth: I LIVE by faith in the Son of God. You must never give up living, otherwise your will stops functioning.

- Principle: God does not require self-destruction so that His life can be manifested.

ii) 'I have been crucified with Christ'

Galatians 2.20 "I have been crucified with Christ [in Him I have shared His crucifixion]; it is no longer I who live, but Christ (the Messiah) lives in me; and the life I now live in the body I live by faith in (by adherence to and reliance on and complete trust in) the Son of God, Who loved me and gave Himself up for me."

X Wrong concept: I am dead and must practice being dead.

✓ Truth: I have died with Christ and am resurrected by His life TO LIVE.

- Principle: God's plan for believers is LIFE not death.

iii) 'GOD works in me'

Philippians 2.13 "[Not in your own strength) for it is God Who is all the while effectually at work in you [energizing and creating in you the power and desire), both to will and to work for His good pleasure and satisfaction and delight."

x Wrong concept: I do nothing but to surrender and then God will do both the willing and working for me.

✓ Truth: I can do all things by the power of Christ in me. God does not want to make a robot of you.

You will always have to do both the willing and working. You are responsible and you must use your will in order to make decisions.

- Principle: God will never push the will of man aside. God never requires of man to stop his activities before He is able to work.

iv) 'In everything give thanks' (1 Thessalonians 5.18)

1 Thessalonians 5.18 "Thank [God) in everything [no matter what the circumstances may be, be thankful and give thanks), for this is the will of God for you [who are) in Christ Jesus [the Revealer and Mediator of that will)."

x Wrong concept: I accept all circumstances as the Will of God.

✓ Truth: I will submit myself to God (not circumstances) IN all circumstances.

- Principle: Submission to God and resisting the evil one must function together (James 4.7).

v) 'Your Will be done' (Matthew 6.10)

Matthew 6.10 "Your kingdom come, Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven."

x Wrong concept: God chooses for me so that I do not have to decide.

✓ Truth: I choose to do His will (John 7.17; John 15.7). When you choose God's Will, then it brings God's provision forth for that situation.

- Principle: God will never substitute the will of man with His Will.

D. Freedom of the Will

We always have a CHOICE!

Spiritual Principle

A SPIRITUAL CHRISTIAN IS SOMEONE WHO IS AT LIBERTY TO EXERCISE HIS WILL.

You have a choice:

(a) Law

Deuteronomy 30.19 "I call heaven and earth to witness this day against you that I have set before you life and death, the blessings and the curses; therefore choose life, that you and your descendants may live"

(b) Law

Joshua 24.15 "And if it seems evil to you to serve the Lord, choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve, whether the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the River, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell; but as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord."

(c) Prophets

1 Kings 18.21 “Elijah came near to all the people and said, How long will you halt and limp between two opinions? If the Lord is God, follow Him! But if Baal, then follow him. And the people did not answer him a word.”

(d) The flesh or the Spirit

Romans 8.5 “For those who are according to the flesh and are controlled by its unholy desires set their minds on and pursue those things which gratify the flesh, but those who are according to the Spirit and are controlled by the desires of the Spirit set their minds on and seek those things which gratify the (Holy) Spirit.”

i) Expose deception by means of the truth

Those who arrive at a place where their will does not function any longer are confused and also deceived.

- (a) Be willing to admit the Truth concerning yourself.
- (b) Recognize areas of deception.
- (c) Discover where you have given the enemy a foothold.

ii) Break passivity by activating the will

- (a) The will is a God-given ability and must function.
- (b) The will is activated by reacting to God's Will. The Will of God will not allow you to be lazy and passive (Jeremiah 29.4-14).

Jeremiah 29.4-14 “Thus says the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, to all the captives whom I have caused to be carried into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon: Build yourselves houses and dwell in them; plant gardens and eat the fruit of them. Take wives and have sons and daughters; take wives for your sons and give your daughters in marriage, that they may bear sons and daughters; multiply there, and do not be diminished. And seek (inquire for, require, and request) the peace and welfare of the city to which I have caused you to be carried away captive; and pray to the Lord for it, for in the welfare of [the city in which you live) you will have welfare. For thus says the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel: Let not your [false) prophets and your diviners who are in your midst deceive you; pay no attention and attach no significance to your dreams which you dream or to theirs, For they prophesy falsely to you in My name. I have not sent them, says the Lord.” For thus says the Lord, When seventy years are completed for Babylon, I will visit you and keep My good promise to you, causing you to return to this place. For I know the thoughts and plans that I have for you, says the Lord, thoughts and plans for welfare and peace and not for evil, to give you hope in your final outcome. Then you will call upon Me, and you will come and pray to Me, and I will hear and heed you. Then you will seek Me, inquire for, and require Me [as a vital necessity) and find Me when you search for Me with all your heart (Deuteronomy 4.29-30).

I will be found by you, says the Lord, and I will release you from captivity and gather you from all the nations and all the places to which I have driven you, says the Lord, and I will bring you back to the place from which I caused you to be carried away captive.”

- (c) The will is motivated by faith. Faith is always active. Remember the account of Y’shua [Jesus] in the storm ... He STOOD up and rebuked the storm!
- (d) The will is strengthened by Truth.

iii) Exercise the will by making decisions

- (a) A passive person is not able to make his own decisions.
- (b) Make a decision and see it through. Break double-mindedness.
- (c) Be prepared to make wrong decisions. Accept the responsibility of making decisions.
- (d) Stop allowing circumstances to control you (e.g. “What will be, will be”).
 - Some prefer to be driven by circumstances rather than to make a decision.
 - God’s Will never depends on circumstances. If you are controlled by circumstances, you lose direction in your life.
 - Passivity presumes that God decides everything for you.

iv) A battle of the will (Resist the devil)

- (a) Passive people do not like to fight, but if you are not in control, then Satan is.
- (b) Man has to rule over his own spirit, mind, body and emotions. He rules by means of his will.
- (c) Resist the dominion of the enemy and regain all lost territory.
- (d) Work together with God for the use of every area of your life as a person.

v) The will in control of spirit, mind and body guarantees freedom

- (a) Proverbs 25.28: The spirit requires the control of the will
- (b) Colossians 3.2; 2 Corinthians 10.5: The mind must be subject to the will.
- (c) 1 Corinthians 9.27: The body must be the instrument of man.
- (d) Galatians 5.23: The peak of a Christian’s walk, is self-control

vi) Stability of the will

We must be stable and moved only by the Will of God.

Psalm 131.2 “Surely I have calmed and quieted my soul; like a weaned child with his mother, like a weaned child is my soul within me (ceased from fretting).”

vii) An active will

An active will is necessary to maintain your deliverance in any area of your life. Set your boundaries.

God has gone to infinite trouble to liberate us, because:

- i) God is Love ... it is His Nature and our relationship with Him is based on love and trust. (Nothing I do will change His mind.)
- ii) For love and trust to exist, there has to be a free choice of a free will. (Man can freely reject or freely accept God - only then is true love possible.)

Of all God's creatures, man is the only one who is able to exercise choices. Animals do make choices, but based on behavioral patterns (instinct.)

Man is created in God's image, which means that man is also creative. He chooses his own goals.

An animal can be taught by conditioning, but man makes moral choices based on truths / standards of right or wrong, e.g., a parrot cannot lie, a dog cannot steal, etc. The will is the final step in the process of human behaviour.

e.g. An illustration of the whole process of behaviour in terms of a motor car:

- ◆ The mind: steering-wheel ... gives direction
- ◆ The emotions: engine ... motivation
- ◆ The will: clutch ... choices

All three must function in harmony in order to produce effective behaviour.

A decision to do something without much motivation, will not achieve much. Exaggerated emotional motivation - fear, anxiety - overwhelms the mind that has to think rationally and the result is panic. (Accelerate without hands on the steering wheel!)

A person who is very enthusiastic about a certain idea, but does not do much about it, is like someone learning to drive - the car is making a noise, the steering wheel is in both hands, but the gears are in neutral.

Mark 12.30 "And you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength."

	Mind only	Emotions only	Will only
Salvation	Change opinion	Regret	Reforming
Faith	Conviction	Impulse	Determination
Love	Admiration	Sentiment	Charity

A free will does not mean freedom. Freedom can only be expressed within the confines of what the law determines, in other words, obedience. Any law that is trespassed turns against me.

Conclusion

The capacity to rule and to have ownership comes from the will of man. Satan wants to take away man's God given ability to rule.

- ◆ Man has to rule over his own life.
- ◆ Do not submit yourself to circumstances.
- ◆ Submit to God IN all circumstances.

Take your cross up daily: Your cross is where your will and God's Will meet:

Luke 9.23 "And He said to all, If any person wills to come after Me, let him deny himself (disown himself, forget, lose sight of himself and his own interests, refuse and give up himself) and take up his cross daily and follow Me (cleave steadfastly to Me, conform wholly to My example in living and, if need be, in dying also)."

The Liberation of the Will

The battle between God and Satan has nothing to do with POWER - there is no question of competition - God can at any time totally eliminate Satan without lifting a finger.

The conflict is in the spirit realm - is it God or Satan who will win the will of man?

The only reaction God seeks of man is nothing less than LOVE.

Satan, though, uses deception, pressure, perversity and anything else that will be to his advantage. Anything except freedom of choice - that he dares not risk.

The Line of Authority

Satan		God
Law of sin & death		Law of God
Adam		Messiah, the Last Adam
"Old" flesh man		New man, spiritman
Spirit - darkened		Spirit - Light
Soul - sin		Soul - Righteous
Body - disease		Body - Healed

Two value systems inside ...

Inside of you, every day, you ALWAYS have the potential to sin!! You are not immune from sin. You have to make a choice every second of the day – who will you serve! You have to crucify the old man and LIVE in the Spirit!

This makes me VERY dependent upon GOD and not on my own strength and myself. When you think you are standing, be careful you do not fall! It is by God's GRACE ONLY that you will make the right choice to stand against the enemy!

Romans 6.16 “Do you not know that if you continually surrender yourselves to anyone to do his will, you are the slaves of him whom you obey, whether that be to sin, which leads to death, or to obedience which leads to righteousness (right doing and right standing with God)?”

Galatians 5.17 “For the desires of the flesh are opposed to the [Holy) Spirit, and the [desires of the) Spirit are opposed to the flesh (godless human nature); for these are antagonistic to each other [continually withstanding and in conflict with each other), so that you are not free but are prevented from doing what you desire to do.”

The Law of God

- ◆ God did not only make the Law - it is the essence of God's own character.
- ◆ The Law is holy, righteous and good.

Psalm 119.72 “The law from Your mouth is better to me than thousands of gold and silver pieces.

Psalm 103 How sweet are Your words to my taste, sweeter than honey to my mouth!

Psalm 140 Your word is very pure (tried and well refined); therefore Your servant loves it.

Psalm 45 And I will walk at liberty and at ease, for I have sought and inquired for (and desperately required) Your precepts.”

The Law of Sin and Death

- ◆ The character of Satan.
- ◆ The attractiveness of sin is based on deception and trickery.
- ◆ His end is hidden.

Proverbs 14.12 “There is a way that seems right to a man, but its end is the way of death.”

Everybody is born under the law of sin and death. Satan gained access to the nature of man and he has instilled a set of inner values in the heart of man (Galatians 5.19-21).

Whenever external laws and inner values are in conflict, the inner values will always win in the long run.

The Old Testament is such a clear lesson to us, because the nation always fell back into sin.

God's answer: The New Testament - A Law written on the heart of man (Jeremiah 31.31-5; Ezekiel 36.25 -27).

The life of Jesus was the means through which the Law of God was written internally on the heart. It was achieved by His OBEDIENCE in every area.

Jesus created two things that had never been humanly possible before, namely:

- (a) A perfect human hatred for sin.
- (b) A perfect human love for righteousness.

The line of Authority

There are two sets of competing authority systems and two sets of inner values.

Unsaved: No choice.

Galatians 5.17 "For the desires of the flesh are opposed to the (Holy) Spirit, and the (desires of the) Spirit are opposed to the flesh (godless human nature); for these are antagonistic to each other (continually withstanding and in conflict with each other), so that you are not free but are prevented from doing what you desire to do."

OLD MAN → NEW MAN

The potential to sin is always there – NEVER trust yourself! When the devil knocks let Jesus answer the door!!

Galatians 5.19-21 “Now the doings (practices) of the flesh are clear (obvious): they are immorality, impurity, indecency, idolatry, sorcery, enmity, strife, jealousy, anger (ill temper), selfishness, divisions (dissensions), party spirit (factions, sects with peculiar opinions, heresies), Envy, drunkenness, carousing, and the like. I warn you beforehand, just as I did previously, that those who do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.”

Galatians 5.22-23 “But the fruit of the (Holy) Spirit (the work which His presence within accomplishes) is love, joy (gladness), peace, patience (an even temper, forbearance), kindness, goodness (benevolence), faithfulness, Gentleness (meekness, humility), self-control (self-restraint, continence). Against such things there is no law (that can bring a charge).”

Mark 7.21-23 “For from within, (that is) out of the hearts of men, come base and wicked thoughts, sexual immorality, stealing, murder, adultery, Coveting (a greedy desire to have more wealth), dangerous and destructive wickedness, deceit; unrestrained (indecent) conduct; an evil eye (envy), slander (evil speaking, malicious misrepresentation, abusiveness), pride (the sin of an uplifted heart against God and man), foolishness (folly, lack of sense, recklessness, thoughtlessness). All these evil (purposes and desires) come from within, and they make the man unclean and render him unhallowed.”

Romans 6.6 “We know that our old (unrenewed) self was nailed to the cross with Him in order that (our) body (which is the instrument) of sin might be made ineffective and inactive for evil, that we might no longer be the slaves of sin.

Romans 6.11-12 Even so consider yourselves also dead to sin and your relation to it broken, but alive to God (living in unbroken fellowship with Him) in Christ Jesus. Let not sin therefore rule as king in your mortal (short-lived, perishable) bodies, to make you yield to its cravings and be subject to its lusts and evil passions.”

1 Corinthians 6.9-10 “Do you not know that the unrighteous and the wrongdoers will not inherit or have any share in the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived (misled): neither the impure and immoral, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor those who participate in homosexuality, or cheats (swindlers and thieves), nor greedy graspers, nor drunkards, nor foulmouthed revilers and slanderers, nor extortioners and robbers will inherit or have any share in the kingdom of God.”

You are the slave of the one whom you obey.

Jeremiah 17.5-8 “Thus says the Lord: Cursed (with great evil) is the strong man who trusts in and relies on frail man, making weak (human) flesh his arm, and whose mind and heart turn aside from the Lord. For he shall be like a shrub or a person naked and destitute in the desert; and he shall not see any good come, but shall dwell in the parched places in the wilderness, in an uninhabited salt land. (Most) blessed is the man who believes in, trusts in, and relies on the Lord, and whose hope and confidence the Lord is. For he shall be like a tree planted by the waters that spreads out its roots by the river; and it shall not see and fear when heat comes; but its leaf shall be green. It shall not be anxious and full of care in the year of drought, nor shall it cease yielding fruit.”

Jeremiah 17.10 "I the Lord search the mind, I try the heart, even to give to every man according to his ways, according to the fruit of his doings."

To Walk in the Spirit

Remember: a set of rules (do's and don'ts) cannot make you holy ... it's Christ IN us. Keeping a set of rules appeals to your PRIDE!!

- ◆ Not effort but UNION.
- ◆ Not struggling but YIELDING.
- ◆ Not works but FAITH.

- i) His power delivers our will from sinful carnal habits.
- ii) He teaches and guides us to live according to the inner Law.

The purpose of the soul is to govern and dominate man but God's order is that his spirit must govern his personality.

To walk in the Spirit implies that the soul has to submit to the spirit that is in-dwelt by the Holy Spirit.

God will never force the human will. Concerning the will: the gap between spirit and soul is bridged by OBEDIENCE.

As soon as the Law (in a certain area) is written on our hearts, our conscience becomes very sensitive - Remember: it is step by step, a road of sanctification.

Example: You are in company where people are sharing incidents that had happened to them. When it is your turn, you tell your story, but you add a few extras and just change the detail slightly. Immediately the Holy Spirit convicts you and tells you that you are lying!

Now you have a choice - you either put it right with God or you ignore it.

If you also put it right with your friends, then God writes the law of telling lies on your heart and you begin to tell the truth always. Your conscience is now extremely sensitive in this area.

We are systematically changed from glory to glory towards total freedom. It becomes a spontaneous reaction that flows from an inner Law³ written on our hearts!

Obedience is not only possible, but ought to become natural for a child of God.

YOU must choose!

³ We encourage the reader to do his own study on this aspect – it was always YHVVH's original intention to write His Torah (Instructions) on our heart ... that we walk in His Ways in loving obedience.

DAY 3

3. Body Testing

Benefit of MT as a tool for counsellors working with Holy Spirit

What is Muscle Testing (MT)?

NB – MT is a tool and is not replacing the Holy Spirit

MT is a tool that can be used to find the root cause as to why an organ or body system is out of balance, whether it's dietary, a nutritional deficiency, nerve tissue damage, chemical imbalance emotionally and Spiritually the Body keeps score and will show

How Does MT Work?

Counsellors are able to check the function of every major organ in the body that is connected to our soul and spirit because of the electrical activity. Without these electrical impulses your body would shut down. \

The body soul and spirit have an impact on each other and is always linked.

1 Thessalonians 5:23 “Now may the God of peace himself sanctify you completely, and may your whole spirit and soul and body be kept blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.”

3 John 2 “Loved ones, I pray that all may go well with you and that you may be in good health, just as it is well with your soul.”

Techniques for MT

There are many different techniques that can be used for MT. One example of a common technique is using the indicator muscle group in your extended arm, proxy using a photo – we are in the quantum season and we need to grow with times and seasons we cannot stay old school

Benefits of MT chronic pain and trauma

MT is the only treatment that has the ability to ask your body what the problem is and receive an answer. It has about 98% accuracy at finding the organ that is the root cause of the problem, when performed correctly- and always have a emotional and spiritual connection for example a part that is stuck in region of captivity and your body is feeling some pain- good way to start to explore with Holy Spirit

MT Helps and Technology

MT can be beneficial for almost any chronic illness, and even help with injuries and learning disabilities emotional and spiritual oppression.

MT And Technology To Treat Depression

MT and neuro-feedback working in conjunction with one another have been extremely successful in the identification and treatment of depression. MT is able to identify metal build-ups which may inhibit the transmission of serotonin. Serotonin otherwise known as the 'happy' chemical may become subdued due to these blockages around the body. Once the blockages have been cleared, it leaves the serotonin able to freely circulate the body and thus eliminating the need

How Safe Is MT?

MT is a non-invasive, completely pain-free tool for treatment. The only way it could be truly harmful for people is if they have a serious illness that needs immediate treatment remember we are not allowed to diagnose as therapist.

Scientific Evidence or Proof

Several hundred studies have shown that musculoskeletal pain produces muscle weakness, the detection of which makes the manual muscle test invaluable in clinical practice.

Benefits Of MT & Research

What exactly is kinesiology?

It is the study of movement through muscular monitoring – otherwise known as biofeedback. Biofeedback through muscle monitoring looks at the possible causes for imbalances within your body and attempts to correct the issues found by using specialised lymphatic massage, nutrition, emotional work as well as electrical balancing.

How does MT actually work?

By correctly applying a minimal amount of pressure to a specific muscle or muscle group thereafter assessing your ability to meet pressure and resist. This can be done over the entire body and thus allowing kinesiologists to evaluate and identify imbalances within various structures of the body. Below are but just a few of the benefits of MT.

Non-invasive

As the testing is being done on a bio-feedback basis there is no need for invasive examinations, or expensive sonograms and allergy testings. All we require for this process is an open and willing mind as well as your body. This is a huge benefit to all our patients as they are no longer pushed from pillar to post in order to receive the correct prognosis. After just a few sessions we will be able to identify and clear that which would have usually taken weeks of blood test results, sonograms, and even X-rays.

MT is Holistic

Using your body and mind as a whole allows for kinesiologists to locate whether the issue is sitting in your mind or body. For example, someone who is dealing with chronic migraines and is constantly on medications may walk into a meeting with a kinesiologist and come to the realisation that the root cause of their pain has been anxiety caused by PTSD that was untreated. This is one of the reasons traditional doctors struggle to find the root cause of chronic pain, they have been taught to treat symptoms instead of finding the root cause of the problem.

MT and Neuro-feedback to treat Depression

MT and neuro-feedback working in conjunction with one another have been extremely successful in the identification and treatment of depression. MT is able to identify metal build-ups which may inhibit the transmission of serotonin. Serotonin otherwise known as the 'happy' chemical may become subdued due to these blockages around the body. Once the blockages have been cleared, it leaves the serotonin able to freely circulate the body and thus eliminating the need for medications.

Imbalances within the Body that MT can Detect

Whilst kinesiology uses the muscles to verify issues within the body, a kinesiologist is able to identify four key areas that could require adjustment. The first of these is to identify issues or imbalances within the hormones, PH balances as well as chemical nutrition. The second key area would be the structural side of your body like issues within the bones, muscles, or tissues. The third key area is emotional fears, phobias, previous traumas whether emotional or physical as well as your level of stress. The fourth and final key is electrical hydration, energy levels as well as energetic fields.

The biggest benefit surrounding kinesiology is that all of this is done by monitoring the muscles and your body's response to the questions that are being asked. It is of vital importance that you allow your practitioner to guide you through this process uninhibited for the full benefits of this practice to work.

Dr. Chris Lentile is our specialist kinesiologist who will conduct a thorough analysis at every consultation, on your muscle strength and ability, to help diagnose your medical condition and the imbalance within your body, that you may be experiencing.

DAY 3

4. Building a Team

1. Counselling requirements for Skype: Protocol

We only do Zoom ministry if your counsellor is present, as we cannot do the trauma help that could possibly be needed after the sessions. We also cannot accept responsibility at such a long distance, therefore the requirement for a counsellor to be on board with the client is essential.

It could also be dangerous for the client if there is no follow up - we all know how much warfare is involved in walking out one's freedom - and so we do want a counsellor actively involved in any aftercare with the client.

Pre-requisite

To be able to assist victims of DID, SRA or DID/SRA, you have to work through Manuals and DVDs of Journey2Freedom and Journey2Wholeness as well as all the DID/SRA teachings.

Journey2Freedom (J2F)

Working through J2F ensures you have the full understanding of how the spiritual realm works, so you can pray much more effectively.

The J2F series also looks at the various possible ROOTS for why we are in bondage, not receive healing and are not walking in the FULLNESS GOD the Father has for us ... it is so important that the ROOT issues are dealt with!

If the ROOT issues are not recognized and dealt with, a person ends up trying to manage or address the "fruit" in their lives, and never really walks in restoration / victory. FRUITS are simply manifestations of some spiritual / emotional ROOT ... examples of fruits could be anger, addictive behaviors, arrested development, anxiety, worry, and so forth.

The J2F series will help you recognize the ROOT issues in your life, and how to deal with them ... the series is also the foundation to our counseling, as we have found it is so important that people have an understanding of all these issues, in order to pray more effectively.

Note: We have found that deliverance and inner healing are not just a prayer ... we are very complicated beings, and there are so many areas one has to explore to find the roots of so many issues we battle with.

This is why we ask people to work through the entire J2F series ... this enables the person to understand what went wrong, and how they are able to receive healing, and keep their deliverance.

The "J2F" series consists of forty DVD's and nine manuals. The course is designed to be studied at home, at your own pace ... or you are welcome to organise a study group in your area to work through the series together – this often helps to spread the costs.

In conjugation to the DVD's and manuals, we recommend for you to make use of our prayers of renunciation. The prayers are grouped into several broad categories, and can also be downloaded from the website or ordered from the office.

The prayers are practical aids to help you renounce the occult roots in your life – those doorways that may have been opened – as well as a guide in repentance to facilitate your walk in VICTORY.

The manuals are really just the framework for the series, where the DVD's are the real “meat” with Amanda teaching/expounding the material, using real-life examples, as well as slides and diagrams.

These will give you more information about the manuals and what is covered in each book:

- ◆ J2F Book 1: Man's Purpose And The Gifts Of The Spirit
- ◆ J2F Book 2: Generational Blessings
- ◆ J2F Book 3: Blessings And Curses On Motherhood
- ◆ J2F Book 4: Understanding Water And Spirit Baptism
- ◆ J2F Book 5: Spying Out The Land
- ◆ J2F Book 6: Dealing With The Giants And Strongholds
- ◆ J2F Book 7: Uprooting Generational Heart-Attitudes And Roots
- ◆ J2F Books 8 & 9: These books is not free to download, due to copyright

We also strongly recommend working through the J2F series in order.

Each manual / DVD builds upon the previous, first laying the foundations of:

- ◆ Understanding our spiritman and gifts, as well as building up our spirit,
- ◆ Understanding the vital role of the father — father building in BLESSINGS and taking up his authority/role as head of the household,
- ◆ Understanding the role of the mother in nurturing and bonding, as well as the curses that can come from un-Godly mothers,
- ◆ Being equipped with baptism (both water and Spirit),
- ◆ Understanding spiritual warfare and the Armour of GOD,

... BEFORE dealing with the giants (manual six).

In J2F, we have tried to cover ALL aspects to restoration in both individuals and families, and have set the series out in order to ensure a proper foundation before dealing with personal deliverance and/or generational curses.

In our experience, we have found that those who “jump” first to deal with generational curses, without having the family foundations in place, have great difficulty in maintaining their deliverance.

Journey2Wholeness (J2W)

J2W goes so much DEEPER into dealing with childhood wounds, INNER HEALING, practical mind renewal, and walking in the WHOLENESS Messiah Y'shua (Jesus) has provided for us!

Topics covered in the J2W series:

- ◆ Breaking the curse of illegitimacy and shame.
- ◆ The impact of emotions, stress, and thoughts on physical health.
- ◆ Dating, courtship, sexuality, and GOD's Plan for covenantal marriage.
- ◆ More fully understanding rejection, and how to walk in healing.
- ◆ Understanding the power of the subconscious mind, the lies/perceptions (LIFE COMMANDMENTS) of our childhood ... practical mind renewal and how to walk in victory.
- ◆ Dealing with anger, forgiveness, and grief.

Journey2Wholeness is our follow-on series, after working through Journey2Freedom. J2W deals with the very important "other side of the coin" to deliverance and breaking generational curses ... inner/emotional healing and maturity. Both dealing with deliverance and inner healing are so essential in themselves ... but you cannot have the one without the other!

While J2F focused on cleaning you up, closing illegal gateways, and breaking bondages - J2W focuses on emotional pain, inner wounds, arrested development, and restoration.

J2W also includes:

- a. Dating vs. COURTSHIP
- b. Dealing with ANGER
- c. Dealing with GRIEF

Like J2F, this series is quite INTENSIVE ... J2W is really the practical "how to" series in walking in complete healing and victory. There are no lasting band-aids or plasters (B.E.E.P.S.) to inner wounds and pain, only the everlasting Cure of Messiah Y'shua (Jesus) and His Ways.

Walking continuously in victory IS POSSIBLE in and by HIM!

J2W is a 24-DVD series, along with three manuals:

- ◆ J2W Book 1: Breaking The Curse Of Illegitimacy And Shame
- ◆ J2W Book 2: Emotional Pain And Building Healthy Relationships
- ◆ J2W Book 3: Emotional Pain And Restoring Relationships

The J2W DVD flow is:

- i) J2W Book 1 = DVD's 1-6
- ii) J2W Book 2 = DVD's 7-20
- iii) J2W Book 3 = DVD's 21-24

Boundaries and bonds: the therapeutic relationship⁴

The research evidence has not changed in the past fifty years: the factor that matters most in successful psychotherapy is the bond between the client and the therapist. Patterson (2000) states that Considering the obstacles to research on the relationship between therapist variables and therapy outcomes, the magnitude of the evidence is nothing short of amazing. There are few things in the field of psychology for which the evidence is so strong. The evidence for the necessity, if not the sufficiency, of the therapist conditions of accurate empathy, respect, or warmth, and therapeutic genuineness is incontrovertible ... the effectiveness of all methods of counseling or psychotherapy may be due to the presence of a therapeutic relationship.

And that is one reason the mind controllers work so hard to destroy it.

How mind controllers prevent the therapeutic bond

Mind controllers know the importance of the relationship with the therapist. They know that the most likely time a survivor will disclose the secrets of their abuse is within a secure bond with a therapist or a loved one. So they go to extra trouble to make sure that such a bond never happens in the first place, or, if it does happen, that it will be disrupted and broken.

Deliberate neglect and breaking of infant bonds

Licensed Clinical Social Worker and survivor Wendy Hoffman, in her unpublished manuscript (1993), states:

The cult knew about attachment disorder before it became a diagnosis. Their goal is to separate the fetus from the pregnant mother emotionally. They give the mother electric shocks in various parts of her body and she has to leave the fetus emotionally. If she does during these frequent torture sessions, the fetus is then born programmable because it will have attachment issues. The reason they test the fetus when born is to see if the mother separated from the fetus. The mother knows if she doesn't, the fetus will be killed. They test by giving the fetus pain and observing whether the fetus will accept comfort. If it will, then the fetus is not programmable, and may be killed.

Another therapist wrote about the initial experiences of ritually abused infants: They are deliberately neglected and abandoned, and the bond with the mother is deliberately broken. One ritually abused client of mine had an alter who believed himself to be a rock. This resulted from being left alone all night out in the forest at the age of two, in the Canadian cold season.

Couple with this severe neglect and bond breaking the fact that, in most cases, the parents are actively involved in the abuse, and you have a recipe for severe distrust of anyone who appears to care. One client of mine was violently sexually abused by family members while they called out alters' names and said, "This is how we show you that we love you."

⁴ Extracts taken from Alison Miller
Day 3: Building a Team

This is what love means." Some of my ritually abused or mind-controlled clients have had parents with dissociative disorders. One part of the parent cared about the child and was even overprotective, while another part was involved in severe abuse.

As one of my clients cried out recently while processing a memory of torture, "That's my dad but it isn't my dad, somebody else is inside him." In other cases, the parents have been consistently frightening and punitive as well as neglectful.

This kind of upbringing teaches a child that she cannot trust people to comfort her or to pay attention to her needs. It produces a disorganized attachment, even without all the pain and torture that these groups administer to children.

Training not to form bonds or trust anyone

Among their abuses designed to contaminate bonding, ritual abuse and mind control survivors have endured deliberate training experiences in which they have been taught not to trust anyone. For example, after a girl had told her teacher that her daddy hit her, her teacher and school counselor were impersonated by cult members, who abused her, and she was told that you cannot trust anyone you tell because they will turn out to be perpetrators and will abuse you.

Children in ritualistic cults are given animals to pet and love, and then the animals are killed, often with the child either being blamed or being forced to hold the weapon which kills it. A survivor reports of having to choose between killing her pet rabbit or having the abusers kill her baby brother.

Perhaps the worst experience is when a child is forced to stab and believe she has killed a person she has been allowed to get close to. Children in Satanic or Luciferian cults are often paired with a "disposable" (unregistered or kidnapped) child, given a chance to make friends with that child, and then are forced to participate in that child's murder.

Stella Katz has shared this story, as an acknowledgment of what she was forced to do as a young girl, and a tribute to the (other) victim. She states that Miranda was a disposable child bred within her group, and was used to train Stella in the "art" of sacrifice, by being the sacrifice.

For Miranda: Stella Katz

This is for you Miranda, and for all the other Mirandas who came before you and who have come after you. May your souls be forever at peace.

Miranda was four years old when she died on an altar of Satan, at the hand of her five-year-old friend. The only difference between Miranda and the other little girl was the family to which she was born. The five-year-old was fortunate, or not so fortunate, depending on the way you look at it, to be born to a family of the inner circle. She was destined to be great and was groomed to be so, and Miranda's death was part of this hideous grooming. Miranda was born to the lower circle. From the moment of her conception she was fated to die. She was probably conceived during an orgy, paternity unknown. Her birth would have been at home, or in the home of another coven member. She would never have seen a doctor unless he was of the coven, or anyone for that matter outside the group.

She never went to nursery school, or the zoo, or any public place. No outside human being would have known of her existence.

From the moment of her birth she was neglected and abused, physically, emotionally, sexually, and spiritually. She was given only the bare necessities of survival.

She was never allowed to associate with other little children or have any kind of friends. About six months before her death, she was, for the first time, allowed to have a little friend. The bond created between these children was unbreakable.

For those six months the friendship was encouraged in every way, and it flourished, neither child knowing what was to come. When someone is starving to death, and food is offered, they don't often stop to ask the cost. When children are deprived of love, any affection is welcomed. When that child suddenly has someone, the bond that is created is an everlasting thing.

For Miranda and her little friend, the bond that was created was nothing more than a deliberate cruel joke. The children were told that something special is coming, and that they are to be a part of it. They got excited as children do; talking and whispering and giggling about what it might be. As the day approached, they were primed and pumped and hyped up, just like children anticipating a special gift from Santa.

On that special day, they were bathed in sweet smelling soaps, and covered in sacred oils. Their hair was neatly curled and groomed and their bodies were painted with sacred symbols.

For those six months, they had been inseparable. And now they were to join in a big celebration at which they would be the honored guests. They were dressed in ceremonial garb. The little friend in white satin, and Miranda in a beautiful red chiffon dress, all soft and flowing. She looked like a princess and felt, for the first time in her little life, like someone special. Her blonde hair fell in ringlets flowing gently over her shoulders and down her back. Hand in hand, Miranda and her friend were led into the center circle by the High Priestess. The bell rang nine times, and chanting began. The High Priest began the offerings, and then after what seemed like forever, he picked up Miranda and carefully placed her on the altar. Her hands and feet were bound, and as the fear welled up inside her, she began to cry. The priest then picked up her little friend and held her as she knelt beside Miranda. When Miranda saw her friend she immediately quieted and smiled. The priest picked up the sacred athame and placed it into the hand of the little friend.

Holding her hand in his, he raised her hand, and with one swift thrust, pierced Miranda's heart. Miranda looked up at her little friend and smiled through her pain and tears, and said "You was my friend" and died.

The little friend was left kneeling on the altar at Miranda's side holding the knife with the blood of her friend dripping off the end of it. Knowing that she had just killed her best friend. The High Priest picked her up again, and raised her to the crowd, and said, "You are forever ours." They cheer. She was passed around the circle and praised. The shock of what had happened was so great she couldn't even cry.

Well, Miranda, thirty odd years later, your friend is finally crying and can't seem to stop. There are too many Mirandas. There are TOO many children that society doesn't know about, or care to know about.

They turn their heads away and pretend that this stuff just doesn't happen. And worst of some are claiming that our memories of Miranda and kids like her are false.

Well, Miranda, I know that you existed. I know that my memories are very real and so were you promise to you here and now that as long as I am alive, the world will know that you and others ill you are not figments of our overactive imaginations.

And Miranda, I swear to you that the voice I silenced so long ago, your voice, my friend, will scream through mine, until somebody finally hears and puts an end to the slaughter of all the little Mirandas.

No one on this earth will ever tell me that you never existed. Be at peace, my little friend.

Stella's tale of her little friend not only shows the horror of forced perpetration, but exposes the horror of the brief lives of unregistered children, born into cults and kept for a few years solely for the purpose of sacrifice.

My most personally traumatic experience in all the years of working with ritual abuse survivors happened when I discovered that one of my clients had an unregistered child. The client's reporter alter told the group that I had found out, and she was forced to kill the child before anyone could locate it. I had to work through this very recent memory with her.

What does it do to a child to have such experiences?

Love is connected with death, and with the child experiencing herself as a murderer.

How can such a person develop an attachment bond?

Most of the memories that can cause the overwhelming kind of guilt and depression used in the mind controllers' "booby traps" (to create suicide attempts) are the death of a loved one such as a brother, sister or friend, or the death of a pet, especially by their own hand.

Other causes are memories of abandonment, being told they are unlovable, even by God ... "no one wants you, you are worthless, no one can save you". The rescuing angel at the end of the Kabbalah pathways is the angel of death, who promises to stop this pain through being the only one who loves the child.

In Chapter Eight, I mentioned the experience of an adult client who, as a little girl, came to trust a friendly caring neighbor; the neighbor woman was impersonated and the child drugged, forced to stab and "kill" her. Then the "dead" person violently abused the child and the cult leaders told her that if she got close to anyone she would be forced to kill them and then they would become evil like this woman did. This client had an alter whose job was specifically to "unplug" her from any relationships in which she might get to trust someone. It took her several years before the young alters could begin to trust me.

Training not to trust therapists

There is also specific training of child alters to distrust therapists. One scenario I have encountered several times has the child lying on the couch of a cult-involved therapist, who says she must look at him. When she does, he is wearing a devil mask and horns, and he rapes her, telling her that all therapists are servants of Satan. Child alters are taught not to look at "therapists" until they are told to.

Experiences such as this one reinforce this training. It sets the scene for actual therapists to be impersonated later in the person's life.

Often, child alters are trained to listen for certain words in what people say, and if they hear these words they know that the person is dangerous and not to be trusted.

With one of my survivor clients I have to try not to use the words feel, touch, or think, among others. All those words were used in combination with torture. When the client with the reaction to those words recently attended an adjudication regarding Criminal Injuries compensation, the adjudicator asked her several times, "How do you feel?", the exact words which were said by her abusers after administering pain. Needless to say, she was upset, and an alter blurted out "Don't use the F word!" I had to explain what she meant to the shocked adjudicator, who stated that she would never use the F word. Another client cannot hear the word "safe," as to her this means the reverse. Several times I have heard a client say "They told me about people like you, they told me you would say that."

Mind controllers also train child alters to seduce therapists. A client of mine disclosed a memory in which she cried in the office of someone she was told was a therapist, and then in comforting her he sexually abused her in such a way that her body responded. Afterwards, he accused her of tricking him into it. When she got home, her mother said she did well, and taught her how to do it better. I found it quite sad when this client posed provocatively, trying to seduce me, saying in a childlike voice that it was "the best offer I'd ever get."

It is hard to build a relationship with someone who has parts who believe either that you will sexually abuse them or that they will harm you or be forced to kill you. Parts who are trained to kill in cults are generally told that they are evil and that their dark energy will harm anyone they get close to-or that the cult members will come and kill those people.

Impersonation of therapists

The training not to look at therapists sets the stage for members of the perpetrating group (sometimes called "cult clones") to impersonate the survivor's actual therapists when she seeks treatment and begins to disclose the abuse. Members of the abusive group study the therapist by attending his or her lectures, becoming clients briefly, or sending a client in with a device to tape the sessions. They find a way to get into the therapist's office, or use another space that is similar to the office. Then they call the client to meet them, or abduct her, and they use an individual who has some physical resemblance to the therapist to impersonate him or her, wearing similar clothing and scented products and imitating the therapist's speech patterns while the client is drugged and unable to see clearly.

Katz, discussing the impersonation of therapists as part of current contact, writes,

When a client is disclosing secrets to a therapist, and the group finds out about it, the therapist is impersonated to make the client distrust them. In the old days, therapists would be impersonated by actors, in a setting that closely resembled the therapist's office. The actor would be dressed in similar clothing and would impersonate the voice of the therapist as much as possible. The person would be picked up and drugged and brought to the so-called office. A therapy session would begin as it usually did, then the therapist would begin to doubt what the person was saying.

They would then tell them that they were lying and that what they were saying was just figments of their imagination. If the person protested, they would strap them to the chair or couch, and physically abuse them, or rape them using electric probes that burned or shocked. This would break any trust the client had with the therapist.

At the end of the session the person may be told it was just a dream. However when the person tries to go to the therapist's office, they find it impossible to trust, or spend the session testing the therapist. This is done over and over again, until the person stops going altogether.

Today it is done using virtual reality glasses, which is more efficient. With the use of computers and virtual reality glasses, as well as good old drugs, it has made it very easy for the groups to reproduce a therapist that the person trusts, and make them into a therapist that hurts.

At one time they needed "look alike" actors, and a good construction crew, and money. Now they simply need to videotape the therapist's office through a window, as well as the therapist, and they can reproduce them any time they need to, with very little expense. A simple recording of the therapist's voice, usually taken from answering machine messages, with the help of a computer, can reproduce every little intonation the therapist may have in his or her voice. If anything specific is needed, a client is planted for a few sessions with a hidden tape recorder, and the group has everything they need to make the therapist appear to be the real person.

This impersonation of therapists sounds preposterous, and I did not believe it until it happened to me with the first four. Tony began to refuse to enter my office, and I had to meet him in the coffee shop across the street. The other clients became afraid of me. Eventually I discovered that cult members had somehow got into my office, 1 and in there someone impersonating me had brutally sexually abused them while telling them she loved them. She had also forced them to abuse one another.

I asked them to bring in a support person to our sessions while we worked through this memory. I eventually held a meeting with Teresa and Jennifer in which they apologized to one another and to me for participating in this (not that they had any choice). These clients all became aware of my being impersonated, and learnt to tell the difference between me and the "clone."

I had a crooked finger at the time, and while not looking at the person's face they could see her hands and see whether or not it was me. During this period I had my first session with a teenager who claimed to be ritually abused, just after I had surgery on this finger, and she kept staring at my bandaged hand. When I asked her why, she stated that it had not been like that the last time she saw me. I had never seen her before! My "clone" had beaten me to the punch.

This impersonation only worked for a short period with these clients, because the "clone" abused them brutally, and did not do a very good job of impersonating me. However, a couple of years later, an artist client claiming a ritual abuse history told me she kept drawing my office. She was knowledgeable about these matters, and wondered whether perhaps my office was to be simulated.

Then she had a dream in which people took her to an office which was a few blocks from mine, similarly located on the second floor of a commercial building, in which she had some kind of therapy session. A little while later, she came to a session with a support person and accused me of being angry and critical of her in our sessions, stating that she could no longer trust me.

Apparently the impersonator that was used this time (this client was from a different perpetrator group than my first four) did a very good job by just engaging in bad therapy rather than sexually abusing the client, so it was harder for her to recognize that she was reacting to an impersonation than to me. I lost this client after over a year of therapy.

If you suspect that you are being impersonated to your clients, select something unique about your hands or some other part of your body, which the impersonator will have difficulty simulating, and suggest to your clients that they look at it if they are not sure whether the person is you.

You may wonder how a client can believe that it is you when the person is engaging in behavior that is completely opposed to your nature and your usual way of being. Remember that these clients are used to being around people who have extreme changes in their behavior. Many of the perpetrators have dissociative disorders themselves, and switch to abusive personalities from ones who are quite socially acceptable. Others are just good actors.

It is very important that you find out whether this is going on and, if so, find a way to work through these current memories as soon as possible. Otherwise you may either lose your client or find yourself the target of a lawsuit or complaint to your licensing board.

Abuser groups also use voice impersonation over the telephone. Teresa, who lived in an apartment, had an impersonator imitate my voice over the intercom and invite her to go out for coffee. Another client, who had a safe husband and older children, kept getting phone calls from "me" cancelling our appointments. We agreed that if I called her, I would always use the name of a floater alter the group did not know about, so that she would know it was really me. Similarly, psychologist Eroca Shaler arranged to always talk about the weather with one client who was receiving such calls. If the weather was not mentioned, the client would know it was not really Eroca.

Creating a therapeutic bond with mind-controlled clients

It is easy to be impatient to get through therapy quickly, especially if funding is time-limited. However, the only thing that works with people who have been so frequently betrayed, trained to expect betrayal, and trained to believe harm will come to anyone they love, is to be consistent, week after week, year after year. We need to be consistent in our caring, caring for all parts of the person equally rather than rejecting some parts. We also need to be consistent in the boundaries we set, so that the client knows what to expect from us. Let us return to LisaBri's story.

A survivor in therapy: LisaBri

In childhood, severely abused emotionally, physically and sexually, I refused to die. My perpetrators, including my own mother and father, did not mildly abuse; they subjected me to the horrors of Incest and Satanic ritual abuse on a continual basis.

I was fearful of the slightest noise at night ... beds creaking, house settling, pipes banging, or a door opening left me cowering in the corner of my bedroom. I knew they would be back to twist and warp my mind for their sadistic purposes. They always knew where to draw the thin line between death and sanity. I always waited in fear, with my heart pounding through my chest and cold, sweaty and clammy hands.

At the age of twenty-five I ran. In running, I found therapy. Three thousand miles away, in hiding, I approached my first therapy appointment. I was about to break one of the cardinal rules of the cult you do not disclose to outsiders.

Body shaking, icy, freezing hands and feet, knees feeling like they would buckle with every step, I reached "Linda's" home office - scared but alive.

She would guide me through the next five years, I left my car on the road, and thought of a hundred reasons why I should not continue and each was just as feeble as the last.

During that two-minute walk, I convinced myself I had not escaped, and behind that door lay my abusers ready to punish me for my indiscretion. As I stood at the door, ringing the bell, hearing the sudden bark of dogs, and what sounded like a thousand troops pounding down the stairs ready for battle, it took all my inner reserves not to take flight as the internal pull to run or stay clashed in my brain.

Those first few years with Linda were turbulent with many valleys and hills. I would reach the crest of one only to fall down the other side. Linda did more than guide me; she broke her own ethical rule of conduct by laying no boundaries. She spent one on one time with me in her home. I would have dinner with her family. She spent her time off frequently having coffee at my house. I could call her twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week, and she bought me presents.

Within four years, I had moved from the city to the small town that she resided in. I became part Linda's other life away from therapy. Playing to my constant insecurities, Linda consistently told "I will never hurt or leave you," and I believed her.

Looking back upon it now, telling me this was as cruel as it was kind. With no set therapeutic boundaries I had no sense of myself. I was living Linda's life and I was bound for hurt or betrayal. Instead of helping me find independence and growth, I grew increasingly dependent on her and when the blow came, it hit the core of my being.

The message I received on my answering machine in the midst of intensive memory work told me she had renewed her faith in God and overnight believed only God could save me. Linda would no longer work with non-Christians. Scared, hurt, disbelieving, and having been so dependent on her, I could not comprehend life without her. Desperately not wanting to lose Linda, I ignored my own instincts and the daily growing knot of uncertainty in my stomach. I went to Christian counseling and to her church for a year, until the fear completely overwhelmed me.

I recognized that coming from such a horrendous background had left me spiritually raped and unable to cope with any religious denomination. I finally had to accept that I had lost Linda in more than a therapeutic way.

After shopping around for almost a year, I found "Christyne", but with a different resolve. I chose her, not from an overwhelming sense of urgency and neediness, but from an educated place of having learned a harsh lesson. I talked to Christyne on the phone prior to making an appointment and she said, "I can guide you, I can help you find yourself and what that means, but first we have to set boundaries." I made an appointment.

I must have reached for the phone twenty times from that day to the date of my appointment to cancel. I didn't. I arrived at my appointment with Christyne, weak-kneed with a parched mouth and throat, and feeling like I could not string two words together. I wondered how I would find the strength to master the walk up to her office; it looked like there were thirty steps, straight up with the last stair not in sight. As I stood on the ground floor, looking up to the top of that mountain of stairs I knew I would climb it-more than once in my lifetime. All I had to do was take one step at a time. I would falter and take a step back, but in strength and support, I would regain my holding and advance to yet another step.

Today, the mountaintop seems closer and with boundaries set out with Christyne I am learning independence and with it a sense of pride. I don't know where Christyne lives, nor do I have her home phone number. With proper guidance, I am in charge of my healing, and I am doing it. Having a consistent structure has been a major growth experience for me.

I still have days when I want to cry and rage, "I don't want to do this anymore!" yet I find the strength and with Christyna's support, I advance to the next level of healing.

Therapeutic boundaries

LisaBri's story illustrates the extreme vulnerability of dissociative clients, the dangers of therapist-client enmeshment, and the importance of clear boundaries with survivor clients. Her early experiences happened during the period in the 1980s and 1990s when therapists were first discovering dissociative disorders.

Like many other therapists working in the 1990s, I had rather loose boundaries with the first few dissociative clients I worked with. Some of that was a result of having worked as part of a multi-disciplinary Child & Youth team with members such as child care workers and social workers, who would go out for coffee etc., with their clients. Seeing them outside the office did not work with my ritually abused clients, and gave an opportunity for the local cult to impersonate me in settings outside the office.

I now believe that every therapist must work out a set of explicit boundaries and stick to them. Issues of trust will arise no matter where the boundaries are placed, although they will be much worse without them.

Survivors of child abuse and neglect tend to replicate the enmeshment and violation of their early experiences. The neglect leads them to want nurturing like little babies without "object constancy."

The abuse makes them insensitive to their own and the other's boundaries. At the same time, their evident hurt, and our natural empathic response, as well as their child-like nature when in young, traumatized ego states, lead us to violate our own boundaries in our attempts to help them. I agree with Kluft (1993) that to break the ground rules of therapy is to recapitulate the boundary violations of the patient's childhood and to demonstrate that the therapist is corruptible rather than reliable, as MPD is a condition that was created by broken boundaries [p. 27].

Guidelines about specific boundaries: therapist availability

The primary area where I find clients try to violate the boundaries concerns my availability to them. These clients are desperate for connection, and once we get past the initial fear, if I let them, they would move in with me. Some of them have no awareness of time. Tony used to phone me in the middle of the night, since he had no sense of the difference between day and night, and after waking me and taking up my attention for a long time, he would switch to a sexualized alter and accuse me of talking to him when I was in bed. When I told him I would turn off the ringer at 10 p.m., he thanked me. Now I do not give out my home phone number at all to these people. I also do not promise to call back at the end of the day, because I am often too tired, too late, or too busy. I have slightly different rules for each client, depending on the extent to which they violate boundaries.

As James Chu (1998) says, constant availability ignores the real human limitations of the therapist, and also leads to increasing dependence on the therapist. And, I might add, it also fails to prepare clients for real life.

Length and frequency of sessions

This is another area where some clients push the boundaries, in particular going into abreactions or pseudo-seizures, or raising important and sensitive topics, when there are five minutes left in the session. If a client needs a longer session because she is processing a particularly difficult memory, that is one thing. If she delays bringing up the awkward topic until the end of the session, that is another. I do find that most dissociative clients work better with a session an hour and a half long rather than the standard fifty-minute hour.

Do these clients need more therapy sessions than others?

Twice per week (presumably, one-hour sessions) is generally recommended for clients with dissociative disorders. I find it works well enough with just one weekly ninety-minute session, recognizing that most of my ritually abused or mind-controlled clients cannot afford even this. The longer session gives dissociative clients more time for different alters to speak either to me or to one another, and also allows time to work through traumatic memories.

The only occasions where I have given extra time were when I was trying to remove all the access programs from my clients who were currently being harassed by the local cult. A weekend intensive therapy program of two days, all day, enabled us to get rid of some of those dangerous programs and make the clients safer. For suicidal crises, I allow the client to use the other resources, such as crisis lines, set up for such situations. I am usually able to avert such crises by careful attention at the end of a session to whether or not such a program is triggered and speaking with the alters responsible.

Phone calls and emails

I used to say that I would only return calls if the person was in crisis. I found that this led to a manufacturing of crises. So now I just say (for those who are prone to frequent boundary invasions) that I do not return calls unless the purpose is to reschedule appointments. I limit one particular client to leaving me one message per week. I do allow clients to call and listen to my message and hang up. Some of them have brought little tape recorders for a special message each week that they can listen to. I give my email address out only to selected clients when they have proven that they can respect boundaries, and I allow them to email me rather than telephone if they are having difficulty. That way I can decide whether and when to respond.

Office rules

Mind-controlled clients in particular appreciate rules being given. They also understand rules, as they have lived with them since infancy.

My own office rules are:

- (i) don't hurt people;
- (ii) don't break things;
- (iii) don't take clothes off except coats.

I state these rules to dissociative clients, especially to child alters. I emphasize that the rules apply to me as well as to them. I see their eyes widen when I mention the "Don't take clothes off" rule. I believe this rule is particularly important because of the likely history of sexual abuse by persons pretending to be therapists. When I state the rule I am telling them not only that I will not abuse them this way, but also that I am aware that this sometimes happens.

Touching

Touch is a complicated issue in the field of psychotherapy, and especially so with these clients. Stephen Ray, one of my early teachers about ritual abuse, said that he thought it was abusive not to touch clients who have been so massively neglected and abused. I do hug, touch, and occasionally hold clients, depending on the person. I often hold the hands of one of my ritually abused clients while I speak with her alters. Apparently several of the "evil" alters were told that they would poison anyone who touched them, so it is important to show them that this curse was based on a lie. My touch creates anxiety in the short run, but will create safety in the long run.

I always ask permission of the particular alter. If any alter seems to have a sexual response I discuss it openly, giving an explicit statement that I will not be sexual with them. One male client had a very young alter he called "the horny goat" for obvious reasons; after careful consideration, he decided that this child part needed a hug too, despite his embarrassment. However, there are days when he makes it clear that he is not to be hugged. The experience of setting his own physical boundaries is probably very reassuring to him.

I do believe it is wise to be careful whom you touch or hug. Many years ago I hugged a distressed woman who had been sexually abused by her mother; needless to say, this was the wrong thing to do.

Commitment and money

If I take on a client with a dissociative disorder, especially if they have experienced mind control of any type, I know I am making a long-term commitment—that is, of several years' duration. So I do not take them on unless I know I want to and am able to follow through. This pertains especially to the financial burden of therapy. I do not start with anyone who cannot pay, unless there are very special circumstances. If a funding source runs out, it is not ethical to just terminate the client. I do not allow dissociative clients to owe me money. Payment for therapy must be negotiated. I clearly at the start, and in some cases periodically renegotiated currently have several pro bono clients, and they are all survivors of organized abuse whose funding ran out some time ago. I need to make sure I have sufficient income from other sources so that I can continue to see these clients.

Dealing with boundary violations

Boundary violations are essentially unavoidable with these clients, because any ritually abused and mind-controlled people have alters who are trained to violate therapists' boundaries. But it makes a difference how we handle them. When I speak to such a client about boundaries, I always begin with saying, "You are not in trouble."

In trouble is the term that many of these survivors use when they are expecting the severe beating or rape that happened when they disobeyed their abusers.

It is to be expected that clients who have been persistently violated in childhood will have difficulty recognizing and respecting boundaries. When it happens, it is important that we mention it to the client, acknowledging any fault of our own if necessary. Confrontation is difficult when we are angry and hurt. I find it helps to write out my own feelings about boundary violations first, and then write out what I am going to say to the client, so that I will not explode, blame, or fail to state my concerns assertively. And it is important to confront sooner rather than later, so I do not have a lot of stored-up anger and hurt.

Just over a year ago, I took on a client who had been fired by an experienced trauma therapist for persistent boundary violations. I took her on probation. Since she had disclosed a history of ritual abuse and mind control, I informed her that I was aware that she probably had alters who were trained to disrupt therapy, and that if this happened with me, that would be the end of our work together. I made my boundaries very clear. About a month into therapy she flooded me with emails. I gave her a single warning, and told her parts to turn off whatever programming was making them do this. They acknowledged that it was indeed the doing of their "jobs," and stopped.

I had this client for a year before she crossed my boundaries again. It happened in response to a crisis in a friendship with another survivor who was also a client of mine. (She met her through a website rather than through me.) There were fifty-seven emails within a few days. I immediately told her not to send me any emails at all. She came to our next meeting expecting to be fired. She had cut her arms and abused alcohol.

I told her that I had been observing her reaction, and we now had an opportunity to find out what caused this reaction, which had given her trouble in many relationships with professionals. I inquired not about the problem to which she was reacting, but the mechanism within her which was creating the reaction. We located "It" and "Beasty," the "non-human" rejected alters who were creating the problem, and worked through the memory of their creation. Her last email to me on the subject said simply "Thank you for giving It and Beasty human dignity and awareness of peace."

This story illustrates how boundary violations have complex and programmed causes in mind control survivors, so we need to be firm but also compassionate, and seek out the root causes of boundary violations if and when they occur.

Transference and countertransference

In an excellent little article called "What is dissociated?" Susan Sands (1994) states that the attachment disorder that is universal among dissociative clients leads to the client's trying to get childhood relational needs met without trusting the therapist to meet them. The child's healthy relational needs for empathy, affect attunement, mirroring, calming and soothing, admiration, security, recognition, sense of alikeness with another, and loving confrontation are dissociated in childhood. These hidden needs and longings are inevitably remobilized within the therapy relationship. The relational needs are experienced by the survivor as longings, affects which signal that certain environmental responses which are necessary for self-development were missing. These longings were dissociated and seen as bad by the child, because the mobilization of these longings led to danger from a sadistic caregiver, and also because of the role reversal in the parental relationship.

They come up in therapy in very crude ways, and it is easy for us to agree with the client that they are bad (regressive, inappropriately sexual, overwhelming to us, etc.)

There are "painful, compulsive re-enactments." The relational longings are experienced, then violently resisted. The client fantasizes us as the idealized omnipotent savior. What we saw in early MPD treatment was that, in response, a lot of reparenting occurred-usually associated with severe boundary violations.

Attachment-related transference

Most persons with dissociative disorders (not just mind control survivors) have difficulties with attachment. Sands and other writers, such as Goulding and Schwartz, have described the following client behaviors related to attachment:

- alters competing for therapy time, trying to get reparenting from the therapist;
- manipulating the therapist, for example, a client cutting her own arm to get an extra session;
- seeking constant reassurance and expressions of affection and caring;
- smothering neediness, attempting to blend or fuse with the therapist;
- expecting the therapist to be an almighty rescuer;
- wanting too much time, energy and commitment;
- perceiving rejection or abandonment where it isn't and reacting with self-mutilation, suicide attempts, fugues, and missed sessions;
- overreacting to the therapist's illness or tiredness;

- overreacting to the therapist's vacations and business trips, thinking everything will change during this time;
- being "a bottomless pit of parts, pain, and crises".

Teresa, the client I almost did not believe, "stalked" me, engaging in many of these behaviors. She would hang around outside my office in the Mental Health Center, hoping to get a glimpse of me if I left the office to go to the bathroom or to lunch. She saw herself as very special to me, and frequently gave me handmade gifts from the child alters, telling me that her parents always rejected such gifts. She would gladly have moved in with me if given such an opportunity.

She created an alter named after me. I found it very difficult to deal with her constant needy presence, and at times I would express anger at her, something that appeared not to bother her at all. I was aware that she had never been cared for, but I did not want to become her mother, and I had to deal with my personal reaction to her clinging presence. As we persisted in therapy, she did improve, and eventually was able to leave town to get away from her abusers to establish residence in another city, where she developed new relationships.

Sands writes that "The patient not only fears that the therapist will become the perpetrator the patient will inevitably evoke controlling or sadistic responses ... from the therapist." Teresa certainly did with me. I remember my anger and my guilt as I tried to push her away from engulfing me with her neediness. Although Teresa was a ritual abuse survivor, much of the transference she made to me, and the countertransference she evoked in me, were responses to the neglect and emotional abandonment by her parents; she played them out with me because I was the first of the professionals in her life who had sought to understand her rather than dismissing her as an untreatable case of "borderline personality disorder."

Looking back, I am not clear how many of Teresa's needy and engulfing behaviors we reprogrammed. All the behaviors described above can occur with "regular" DID's or trauma survivors who were not subjected to ritual abuse or mind control. But with the mind-controlled population we need to bear in mind that, in addition to living with sadistic and inconsistently available caregivers, they have experienced specific interventions by the abusers to make sure they do not form a bond with a therapist. Teresa had particular difficulty with my vacations being afraid that something terrible would happen to me while I was away. I later found out that the cult group simulated my murder on several occasions when I was on vacation, in addition to using the time to hold fake and abusive "therapy" sessions. Mind-controlling abusers capitalize on the client's natural fear that the therapist will become a perpetrator by setting up staged scenarios in which the therapist is indeed abusive, and in which the client has to ab the therapist.

In any personality system, those alters in charge of safety are always observing what goes on in therapy, and trying to assess how trustworthy we are. Even though many parts do their "jobs" of sabotaging the bond, most parts are very hungry for connection with a trustworthy person, something they have never experienced, which is a basic, healthy human need. We must recognize the importance of this need. It is unlikely that mind control survivors have experienced such a connection, unless their abuse happened in a setting unconnected to the home. This connection is probably the most important element in any therapy, and particular! so with those who have never experienced it.

As we provide recognition and respect, soothing, mirroring, and gentle confrontation in therapy sessions, we can then encourage it to be gradually internalized. Alters who have experienced this can share it with newly emerging alters. I used to read a story to the "kids" of one ritual abuse survivor at the end of each therapy session, and newly emerging child parts would begin their current awareness by listening to the story from "inside." We can empathize with the client's desire to have us twenty-four hours a day, explaining that that is what a baby needs, while not giving in to it. We can ask them to provide in the inner world the nurturing that we cannot provide on the outside. We can respond gently to sexually aggressive alters, explaining that we do not need them to have sex with us like their abusers did, but we care about them without this.

Trauma-related transference

Judith Herman (1992) points out that because disempowerment is a huge effect of trauma, clients often attempt to regain their power via the therapeutic relationship-when, because of their needs to be taken care of, they have given us too much power. At the moment of trauma, the victim is utterly helpless and feels totally abandoned. "It's frightening to need someone so much and not be able to control them," Herman states (p. 137). The patient feels that her life depends on her rescuer, so she cannot afford to be tolerant of human error in the therapist. Herman gives an example of a Vietnam veteran who wanted revenge on the medic who treated him, rather than on the enemy. "In fantasies they wish to reduce the disappointing, envied therapist to the same unbearable condition of terror, helplessness, and shame that they themselves have suffered" (p. 138). I believe that if the therapist is truly empathic, this is reduced. It is worse if the therapist distances him or herself from the client and the material. It is important for the therapist to understand the power dynamics so as not to take the challenges personally.

Trauma-related transference might lead to attempts to regain power in the disempowering therapeutic relationship through such behaviors as:

- accusing the therapist of incompetence;
- pumping up the therapist's vanity then pricking it with a pin, challenging his or her professional expertise, and catching every error he or she makes;
- blaming the therapist for compounding their suffering;
- inviting the therapist into power struggles and trying to provoke him or her to be hurtful and abusive, and to re-enact the trauma in therapy;
- sharing graphic details of abusive incidents which traumatize the therapist.

Mind controllers are aware of this dynamic, and they use it. One common technique of mind-controlling abusers is to infuriate the victim through making them powerless, for example, to save another child whose cries they can hear. Then, when the anger is sufficient to split off an alter who only knows the emotion of anger, the abusers provide a victim upon whom that alter can take out its rage. When the survivor later encounters frustration or powerlessness, these rage-holder alters can be activated. Sometimes they are specifically trained to attack or kill therapists. It is uncommon that a client's system will allow any real harm to occur, but therapists working with survivors should be aware that this training might be present.

Time and trust

There is no substitute for time in building trust. Almost all of my ritually abused clients have had histories of failed therapy with other therapists. Some had their boundaries violated, some were allowed to cross over the therapists' boundaries and were then blamed for it, and some were treated by methods that are just inappropriate for this population. Your clients will watch your every move and every word to see whether or not you are trustworthy, believing that it is most likely that you are not, but hoping desperately that you will prove to be a person they can trust. It might take you many years to prove this, but it is possible. Once this happens, you will be able to get to the other work of therapy, developing relationships with all parts of the personality system, working through the traumatic memories, and resolving the issues caused by the extreme abuse. Take your time. And be patient with yourself, too.

The important thing to remember at this point is that you need to treat all parts with consistency and fairness, with "unconditional positive regard." It is only when you provide consistency over time that a survivor of this kind of horrendous abuse can come to trust you.

Remember also that many parts have no sense of time, so when they come out into the body after years of therapy, they may have no awareness of all the person's history with you. It will help if other parts can take the time to fill them in so that they can build trust with you more quickly. A month ago, I met a "new" alter in a client I have been treating for many, many years. This part did not know who I was and was suspicious of me, especially when I asked him questions. I recognized by his behavior that he had probably been interrogated by abusers, as he interpreted even my statements as questions that he did not want to answer. The host is by now pretty sophisticated regarding dealing with alters, and he instructed me to leave this new part alone to just observe his present life until he is ready to talk. Good advice. It turned out that this part is very helpful in calming him down, now that he has been orientated to the safe present.

Note: I later discovered that the woman who took another client of mine to a cult meeting was a member of a sexual abuse survivors' group that met in my office building, so she could have remained after a meeting and unlocked the building for the perpetrators.

Support

Yechezk'el (Ezekiel) 9:4 CJB Adonai said to him, "Go throughout the city, through all Yerushalayim, and put a mark on the foreheads of the men who are sighing and crying over all the disgusting practices that are being committed in it."

Thank you for the opportunity to share our walk with the survivors.

Thank you for the overcomers who chose us as Yeshua saved us ... but I want to thank you as you saved us as well from a pride and proud full and "sleeping beauty" churchianity life.

We went from being sheep to sheep dogs.

The sheep dogs warn the sheep of the wolves ... if the wolves are in sheep clothes.

We also want to acknowledge Amanda and Roly and the entire team of Kanaan Netherlands and South Africa.

I really owe a deep gratitude to everyone overcomers and councillors alike and the team of Shamar and Jack for walking and learning and leading in this journey.

This is really the most challenging but most beautiful walk with Yeshua. And in my view the most important work of the times we are in at the moment.

Much has been shared already of what we wanted to share as well so maybe there will be repeat stuff.

In the Bible when stuff is repeated then it must be important.

- ◆ If you are really really serious about this song "My life is not my own, it belongs to You ABBA Father ."
- ◆ If you really really mean that, then walking and working with survivors (overcomers) is perfect work for you.

But Father will do most of the work on YOU ... so be prepared to allow Father to work on your. The hand of the vine dresser is so previously close to us to prune us when we do not bear fruit.

John 15:2 ESV "Every branch in me that does not bear fruit he takes away, and every branch that does bear fruit he prunes, that it may bear more fruit."

Yeshua comes for a Bride without blemish, spot or wrinkle ... so as you give support, you will go through the refiners fire yourself. Your will and the old-man ego must submit.

And it is like a rebirth again ... painful and beautiful.

No one tells you but getting in alignment with your inner being can sometimes feel like baptizing a cat.

We prefer to call the people we support victorious overcomers.

The disturbing horrors of the reality that has happened in the programming ... it is often too much to bear. YHWH did not create us to witness these evil horrors, so I understand that the church does not understand this.

Much has been said about how naive the church is (sleeping beauties) to this reality even though Ephesians 5 says our following;

Ephesians 5:11-17 “Have nothing to do with the deeds produced by darkness, but instead expose them, for it is shameful even to speak of the things these people do in secret. But everything exposed to the light is revealed clearly for what it is, since anything revealed is a light. This is why it says, “Get up, sleeper! Arise from the dead, and the Messiah will shine on you!” Therefore, pay careful attention to how you conduct your life — live wisely, not unwisely. Use your time well, for these are evil days. So don’t be foolish, but try to understand what the will of the Lord is.”

So PLEASE practically speaking ...

- the fields are white
- we are the workers
- we are all gifted in different ways
- but we all have gifts.

Networking

I hope that you can be encouraged to get engaged, or to engage your network to get involved in this precious precious work.

Also an encouraging note to overcomers to share your story and to ask people for help. Bring this into the light. ... learn to trust people again and ask for help.

See the amazing story of Naaman.

The slaves were the messengers to Naaman to help Naaman become humble.

As a councillor in the USA, Ruthie Andrews says, “the DIS that truly go through their refining fire healing will be the end time teachers.”

Yeshua is very close to the broken hearted. What is done to the survivors is done to Yeshua, so you experience new intimacy in your walk with Yeshua. It is so amazing and special.

If YHWH can use a donkey that speaks he can use all of us.

How can you give practical help?

Image a friend you really love suddenly loses her husband and family in an accident.

What would you do?

How will you help?

Just imagine that ...

- tea
- tissues
- sit with her
- cry with her
- pray with her
- cook a meal
- cook 2 meals
- run errands
- do the dishes
- give hugs
- help overcome this terrible tragedy and trauma.

With the victorious ones who are in the process of healing and restoration they really need people who stand by them and help them restore their humanity similarly what you would do for your friend.

Show them the genuine love and acceptance and friendship of Yeshua.

So you need to live by example and teach them life and living back to normality.

We all have different types of gifting but Father gifted us to each other so stick to our own natural gifting.

Some of the survivors are very well programmed and functional in every day life you often have no realization of the inside parts.

They were taught to be functional not to show emotion so it would be difficult to see and understand what is needed.

They seem no different than the rest of the broken people around us (including us);

- but just be yourself with them
- open and transparent
- honest, gentle and genuine
- some might just need some stability
- some need to learn how to operate a washing machine or personal teaching on housekeeping or hygiene
- others need you to just join them to go to the dentist

- just be the Body of Messiah to them in all forms of practical help and above all love and warmth and acceptance
- but above all ... LOVE, warmth and acceptance, NO judgment.

✗ Do not isolate them.

✗ Do not leave them outside the camp.

Do NOT JUDGE those that attach the church ... do NOT NAME and BLAME. I ask forgiveness where I have even done this.

- ◆ We are all broken people.
- ◆ We were all in some way or another rejected to cause deep wounds in our spirit and soul.
- ◆ We all have bloodline inequities.

So working with overcomes will expose your weak points, your area of growth! But be pleased ... it is fantastic to go through the refiners fire.

AND YES ... you will be attacked, but so was Yeshua, Paul, David, Moses and many others. We are attacked all the time, we just often do not realise it.

You will really grow in understanding of the spiritual world.

We share our testimony of our work with our Christian friends. As we explain the spiritual world of the enemy and what they do, the comment often is that we in our ministry are busy with the "works of darkness" and they (our friends) prefer not to give the enemy too much attention because what ever you give too much attention to grows.

Our friends say they prefer to give attention to God.

That is a painful comment to see the veil of blindness that cover the church, but as Amanda explains that it is also the nodes and grids that keep the veil in place.

Other than prayer to pull down the veil, we do talk and testify that Yeshua walks with the broken hearted and that we experience Him and His presence in the most amazing way.

So it is a true honor AND privilege to do this work ... but the work of support is also educating the church. Do not keep quiet because people do not understand.

Pray and talk ... remember the slaves of Naaman.

So love and love well!!

- ◆ Open your arms to give the love of Your Father.
- ◆ Be practical in your help and that is different for every survivors.
- ◆ Some are very functional and you do not see the internal world or wounds so ask questions and be sensitive.
- ◆ Stay close to your own gifting in the practical help.

- ◆ If you are family, show them functional family life.
- ◆ if you are alone, just join them in friendship.
- ◆ Be open and honest.
- ◆ Be your authentic self.
- ◆ You are not perfect - they know it.
- ◆ Make your yes, yes and your no, no.
- ◆ Do not make promises you cannot keep ... even down to eating an ice cream together.
- ◆ Say sorry when you make mistakes.
- ◆ Do NOT be scared to talk to the parts - you are not a counsellor, but if the parts come forward, just be cool about it.

You will be challenged and you will make mistakes. Herewith some pointers;

- i) Like with all people in relationships, there will be misunderstanding and confusion in communication.
- ii) Set your boundaries.
- iii) Watch your marriage very closely and stay strong in your covenant, because if you do not, the survivors will feel it and can attack or become unsettled. They need you to be stable.
- iv) If you have a heart like mine, you will want to help everyone, but that is not practically possible ... check with YHWH who you may help and who not. You are not the saviour.
- v) You are not their mothers or fathers so do not say that .. just assume a family and body of Yeshua's role.
- vi) Pray that other people will be added to the support team.
- vii) Pray through your own known bloodline issues.
- viii) If you do not know your bloodline iniquity, ask for proxy muscle testing.
- ix) Pray every day to put on your armour and shield of faith.
- x) Write your petition!
- xi) Break salt and threshold covenants.
- xii) Apply the broom of destruction and cleaning every time they visit to close portals.
- xiii) Pray and clean gifts and food.
- xiv) Cut the cordings every time after a visit.
- xv) Do that with all the stuff you buy and all the friends you meet. Make this clean praying a daily practice.
- xvi) Do not fully book your agenda. Do not overbook yourself.
- xvii) Be available to sit in with counselling sessions.

But be prepared to work in the vineyard!

To be crushed like an olive and in a winepress. Yeshua and all His disciples were put to the test so see attacks as a compliment.

Beloved, do not be surprised at the fiery trial when it comes upon you to test you, as though something strange were happening to you. But rejoice insofar as you share Yeshua's sufferings, that you may also rejoice and be glad when His Glory is revealed.

Yet if anyone suffers, let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify YHWH in that Name.

Therefore let those who suffer according to YHWH's Will, entrust their souls to a faithful Creator while doing good.

1 Peter 4: various verses

- the survivors will avoid you if you are not safe
- they will check you out and if they approach you and appreciate you may see that as a compliment (but be weary if it is a set up)
- When a survivor approaches you that is not in counselling ... ask Yeshua for wisdom
- But pray for them and do not ostracise them ... they have been through Hell.
- Show them compassion and grace and ask them if you may give them tools for healing.
- Do not point to them in churches that they are dangerous. That is labeling.
- Be very careful and cautious how you communicate to others about these realities. Do not put them outside the camp. Do not label ... or sent them in the wilderness like a scapegoat.

They will chose you and therefore, maybe, YHWH chose you as well. But the enemy may send them. So use wisdom.

If they avoid you then you have to ask very very honest questions to yourself about your own bloodline!

There is so much I can say but it really comes down to this.

- ❖ My life is not my own
- ❖ I belong to You.

Awaken the slumbering spirit

Arthur Burke

God our Father is rousing our spirit and waking the dead places in us, but it is not only our lives that are waking.

We are being called to awaken the slumbering spirit in others.

There will be a price to pay for waking the inert or shackled places in our spirit and bearing the burdens of calling to life the deadness in others.

The crowd that gathered at the tomb of Lazarus was well aware of that, as Martha said, "He smells!"

- ◆ The stone had to be rolled away, and the gathered loved ones had to remove the grave clothes. Don't sanitize that picture.
- ◆ An unembalmed body had been in the hot sun of the Middle East for four days wrapped in linen strips.
- ◆ Yes, it was messy, stinky business.
- ◆ Yes, there will be pain for us as we minister to others what we have received, but it will be redemptive pain ... birth pains.

Blessing

"I bless you with a heart that fights for and shepherds the hearts of others, particularly those in your family. I bless you with looking beyond their outward behavior to their hearts to heal and restore, to affirm and validate. I bless you with eyes to see them as whole and holy in your Savior, and to respond to them as He sees them to be and knows they can be in Him."

Thank you

Cornelia

What is divination?

“The practice of seeking knowledge of the future or the unknown by supernatural means.”

MT can NEVER be used to tell the future!

It does not use supernatural means to obtain information.

MT and the Ouiji Board

The Ouija Board is an attempt to communicate with demons and to access the spiritual realm for information.

MT is applying pressure on a muscle to measure a physical change in the body when exposed to truth.

- ❖ What do you want to do with the information?
- ❖ Manipulate or control a situation or its outcome?
- ❖ Or help someone heal and come closer to God?

What are the rules when applying MT to Counselling?

Predicting the future or to access information about future events.

Using anything else but the electromagnetic energy in the body to get Yes or No answers.

Important – refer to the lesson on electromagnetic energy in the course “Quantum Physics and Counselling”.

Remember it is a tool to find imbalances in the body.

Using MT to communicate with demons or to access other spiritual realms. It can only find events from current and back into the past.

Why can we test for bloodline, is that not spiritual?

Bloodline is linked to the DNA.

The electromagnetic energy runs through the “Energy Centers” and connects the body and spirit. Spiritual attacks that have an effect on the body will register as an imbalance and can be detected through MT.

MT should NEVER replace the Holy Spirit.

It is only a tool!

Stay sensitive to the Spirit.

It is not morally correct to test someone without their consent!

A client must know what they are consenting to and give permission to be tested.

Can you test an animal using MT?

Yes, their bodies also generate an electromagnetic current. This acts as a carrier of information. Their bodies can register an imbalance and this can be corrected.

Can you test inanimate objects through MT?

No, you can only test a living object that generates an electromagnetic energy.

You can test the effect that an inanimate object has on your body, but you are testing your body.

Any object that has a curse or an Entity that influences your body or spirit can be tested by your own body.

Your own home can be tested by your own body as this will influence your body or spirit.

- ◆ I cannot test my body to find info on an object that you own.
- ◆ I can also not test your home on my body to find information.

These are clear forms of divination.

Why can we test supplements or food to ask if this will be good for the body?

Because there is a deficiency in the body you can identify this through MT.

But I cannot ask my body what your body needs!

MT while using a photo or Video Call

Light is made up of photons, which are like tiny packets of energy. When an object's atoms heat up, photons are produced from the movement of atoms.

Capturing that light energy is what creates a Photo.

Electromagnetic energy gets captured on a Photo and can be transferred through a screen of a PC or Phone just like sound energy and light energy is transferred through the screen.

A hedge of protection

- ◆ Prayer forms the hedge of protection.
- ◆ Daily prayer for you and your family is a must!
- ◆ Get a petition in place before you go into ministry.

Watch out for the “gap in the fence”

- ✗ Ungodly application of MT.
- ✗ Not covering yourself enough with prayer.
- ✗ Reacting to negative emotions.
- ✗ It is important to ensure that you have a clean bloodline.
- ✗ Your own sin, breaking God's laws and commandments.

Negative Emotions and Codings

Ephesians 4:26 “Be angry, but don’t sin — don’t let the sun go down before you have dealt with the cause of your anger”

Romans 2:22 “You who say that people should not commit adultery, do you commit adultery?” Don’t make cordings so that cordings cannot be made with you.

Who are we ULTIMATELY accountable to?

God judges the intentions of our hearts.

As counsellors we have a responsibility first to God and secondly to our client.

We need to ensure that we practice MT based on Godly principles and not fall into the trap deception.

Romans 14:12 “So then, each of us will give an account of ourselves to GOD.”

DAY 4

2. Personal Prayer Life

Personal Prayer Life

The Calling of our Priesthood

1. FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLE OF ORDER

God shows us in the very first verses of the Bible, a critical principle, namely, that He will use His authority by the Spoken Word and turn chaos into order.

Satan / the World system and cultures / our flesh - have one purpose, namely, to create and thrive in chaos.

A believer's purpose on earth, therefore since we are made in the image of God, is to use our delegated authority to command all chaos to return to God's order

We can spend much time looking at our situation today – a few headlines will establish that much chaos rules in this world:

- ◆ Governments: where corruption reigns and they are stamping on freedom of speech
- ◆ Covid 19: a man-made militarised pathogen, and a worldwide common management model to ruin the economy ... unemployment at new heights
- ◆ Forced vaccinations
- ◆ Civil unrest and church splits

Ever-increasing openness towards and legislation for gay rights and abortions, and on, and on.

CHAOS

Prayer points

- REPENT of not taking up the mandate to declare ORDER where-ever there is chaos.
- Petition God to allow the Holy Spirit to “hover / vibrate “over us so that we can hear what it is that God wants us to do.
- REPENT from failing to separate the “chaos thoughts” from your mind and for failing to pull these strongholds down.

2. OUR ORIGINAL MANDATE

Way back in Genesis 1:28 we read these words:

Genesis 1:28 “Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth and subdue it,”

We note the word ... man must “fill / refill” the earth.

Please note this instruction precedes the “job description” to:

- ♦ Have dominion and
- ♦ Tend and keep the Garden

So, what does this word mean?

Meaning of Hebrew Strong’s H 4390

male / ma la	• to fill something • to consecrate as a priest • to be prepared for military confrontation with weapons
---------------------	--

Taking the letters from the Hebrew alphabet and applying their individual meanings we get the following:

- ✓ Mem → water/chaos
- ✓ Lamed → rod/staff
- ✓ Alef → strength,

Which creates this understanding ...

We are priests who use our authority as represented by the Rod / Staff to bring ORDER to all chaos.

Let us take this further with our mandate.

The Hebrew understanding of tend / dress the Garden is:

- To worship
- To work
- To attend to ceremonies

The Hebrew understanding of keep / guard the Garden is:

To take up the authority given to us so that we will maintain the “Garden” in the original state that it was when we first were given it.

It's very clear that ADAM (and EVE) had:

- ✓ been appointed in the role of the priesthood,
- ✓ been given the authority to take dominion and
- ✓ had the talents/gifts to do so.

The fact that ADAM had been given a Rod / Staff is a critical factor in considering the Rod / Staff of Aaron.

We are ALL priests in the Living Stone Tabernacle!

1 Peter 2:9 “But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for His own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of Him who called you out of darkness into His marvelous Light.”

In the Old Testament, only Aaron and his family, out of the tribe of Levi, were allowed direct access to God.

Moses = Prophet

Aaron = High Priest

Why did Korah not want the position that Moses had?

Simple ... he knew that the highest authority lay with Aaron and his rod.

Prayer points

- Call out to God with broken hearts as we see the corruption in our cities and the Body of Messiah.

Ezekiel 9:4 “And the LORD said to him, “Pass through the city, through Jerusalem, and put a mark on the foreheads of the men who sigh and groan over all the abominations that are committed in it.”

- Repent of all abominations that are taking place in God's sanctuary - specifically come against the spirit of false prophecy – the Balaam spirit - where ‘prayers and altars’ are built but with the purpose of cursing God’s people.

Ezekiel 9:5-6 “Your eye shall not spare, and you shall show no pity. Kill old men outright, young men and maidens, little children and women, but touch no one on whom is the mark. And begin at My sanctuary.”

Jude 1:11 “Woe to them! For they walked in the way of Cain and abandoned themselves for the sake of gain to Balaam’s error and perished in Korah’s rebellion.

- Petition that God's NAME will once again be found on the forehead of every believer - the mark of God.
- Repent for every time that you failed to carry out the Will of God (just like Jonah).

3. PRACTICAL APPLICATION: AARONS ROD, A SYMBOL OF A PRIEST'S AUTHORITY

As I thought over the spiritual meaning of these concepts my mind took me back to the image of the visible budding / blossoming and fruitfulness of Aarons rod."

We find the outcome of the debate as to who is God's chosen in this following verse:

Numbers 17:8 "On the next day Moses went into the tent of the testimony, and behold, the staff of Aaron for the house of Levi had sprouted and put forth buds and produced blossoms, and it bore ripe almonds."

The entire process reflecting God's Hand in opening up:

- His purposes,
- in providing the sustenance / means for growth and then
- ensuring that the "sign" of success is evident to all who would want to see, ... is manifested here.

So, what lessons can we take from this story about Aaron's Rod to be applied to our circumstances today?

i) Aaron knew and understood his authority.

Aaron had begun the journey together with his brother Moses. He knew that the "real" highly visible, calling belonged to Moses but understood and accepted his role in the plan, namely, to be the voice that could represent the people and to be the support that Moses needed when accomplishing the "exodus-calling".

He had no desire to usurp Moses ... he was content to function in the role defined for him.

Psalm 23:4 "Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for You are with me; Your Rod and Your Staff, they comfort me."

Prayer points

We repent for failing to hear and to do that which You have asked of us. We ask You to open our EYES and EARS that we may be empowered to KNOW Your Will.

Matthew 13:14-15 "Indeed, in their case the prophecy of Isaiah is fulfilled that says: "You will indeed hear but never understand, and you will indeed see but never perceive." For this people's heart has grown dull, and with their ears they can barely hear, and their eyes they have closed, lest they should see with their eyes and hear with their ears and understand with their heart and turn, and I would heal them."

We repent for allowing the fear of man, and of circumstances such as the pandemic to cause us to become stuck.

ii) Aaron learnt very quickly what the spiritual value of the Rod / Staff was.

Aaron had picked out a nice piece of dead wood. He has fashioned it into a staff that he would carry all over with him. The staff had become polished with all of the handling over time, and represented his personal word of truth to all those who knew him.

As soon as he accepted the position to stand alongside Moses, the spiritual value of that staff changed. It became the visible sign of God's authority ... which meant that whatever Aaron now said, just had to be that much more carefully weighed up against God's benchmark.

Proof that Aaron staff represented God's Words are found in the image where his rod / staff "eats" up the other snakes of the Egyptians.

Exodus 7:8-13 "Then the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "When Pharaoh says to you, 'Prove yourselves by working a miracle,' then you shall say to Aaron, 'Take your staff and cast it down before Pharaoh, that it may become a serpent.'" So Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and did just as the LORD Commanded. Aaron cast down his staff before Pharaoh and his servants, and it became a serpent. Then Pharaoh summoned the wise men and the sorcerers, and they, the magicians of Egypt, also did the same by their secret arts. For each man cast down his staff, and they became serpents. But Aaron's staff swallowed up their staffs. Still Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he would not listen to them, as the LORD had said."

Prayer points

- Repent of all man-made actions that have been instituted which were not sanctioned by the Holy Spirit. Repent of all pride and arrogance in fighting for positional power within the Body of Messiah.
- Father, we petition that You allow Your Holy Spirit FIRE to purge us from the inside.
- Repent of focusing on distractions / fear which the enemy has placed before us ... e.g. the pandemic. We commit to focusing and declaring Your ORDER in this world system.

iii) Aaron learns to deal with challenges to his authority.

Basically, after Korah and the other 250 men were rejected by God ... as being in total rebellion, ALL the leaders of the tribes come to challenge Aaron's authority. There was grumbling in the camp.

Numbers 16:41-49 "But on the next day all the congregation of the people of Israel grumbled against Moses and against Aaron, saying, 'You have killed the people of the LORD.' And when the congregation had assembled against Moses and against Aaron, they turned toward the tent of meeting. And behold, the cloud covered it, and the Glory of the LORD appeared. And Moses and Aaron came to the front of the tent of meeting, and the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 'Get away from the midst of this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment.' And they fell on their faces. And Moses said to Aaron, 'Take your censer, and put fire on it from off the altar and lay incense on it and carry it quickly to the congregation and make atonement for them, for wrath has gone out from the LORD; the plague has begun.'" So Aaron took it as Moses said and ran into the midst of the assembly. And behold, the plague had already begun among the people. And he put on the incense and made atonement for the people. And he stood between the dead and the living, and the plague was stopped. Now those who died in the plague were 14,700, besides those who died in the affair of Korah."

Essentially, what we have here is the age-old syndrome of mankind. We will only think about what WE want and not think about what it is that God wants.

All sin against God is in reality REBELLION!

In order to do whatever it is that you want to do, you first have to take off the robe with the tassels!

Prayer points

REPENT for being ungrateful for everything that we get from God.

- No matter how “small” the calling seems in our eyes, it’s essential in God’s plan for His Kingdom here on earth.

REPENT for not being teachable, thereby not focusing on what we can learn from others – all of the time.

- It’s very easy to think that we know everything, especially when you have an academic degree and the experience. However, truth be told, very often it’s the least qualified people who come up with some of the most ingenious ideas.

REPENT for not reflecting moral/ethical excellence

- No matter how clever we are, how many verses we can quote, how many prayer and fasting sessions you have done, our authority lies in the LIFESTYLE that we role model in our daily walk in the community.
- Repent of all “grumbling / gossip / slander” which we may have been a part of.

iv) Aaron learnt to replicate the miracle of the budding of his rod, in real life.

We all desire to produce fruit (good fruit, plentiful quantities of fruit). However, that only comes after hard work. The following steps indicate exactly what is required:

a. You need to develop deep roots.

Plants that have deep roots can withstand, not only the winds of circumstances, but also the long droughts that we see today.

Equally, we need to dive deeply into the WORD OF GOD if we are serious about producing fruit.

Jeremiah 17:7-8 “Blessed is the man who trusts in the LORD, whose trust is the LORD. He is like a tree planted by water, that sends out its roots by the stream, and does not fear when heat comes, for its leaves remain green, and is not anxious in the year of drought, for it does not cease to bear fruit.”

Psalms 1:2-3 “... but his delight is in the law of the LORD, and on his law he meditates day and night. He is like a tree planted by streams of water that yields its fruit in its season, and its leaf does not wither. In all that he does, he prospers.”

Prayer point

- We repent of the fact that we have not taken greater care to study and apply the WORD of God ... that we have allowed ourselves to be influenced by the "thinking" of man and have not verified all teaching against the truth of the Bible.

b. You need to eliminate all the weeds.

We know that "weeds" will grow ... evil thoughts and desires - egotistical actions that are meant to be seen by many, but only function to build our own ego / pride. This is a reality.

We need to be active in identifying those actions/thoughts and plans which do not fall in line with the Will of God.

Luke 14:16-20 But he said to him, "A man once gave a great banquet and invited many. And at the time for the banquet he sent his servant to say to those who had been invited, 'Come, for everything is now ready.' But they all alike began to make excuses. The first said to him, 'I have bought a field, and I must go out and see it. Please have me excused.' And another said, 'I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to examine them. Please have me excused.' And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come."

Prayer points

- We repent for all ‘unclean’ and “unholy” thoughts and actions that we have been involved in.
- Remove all obstacles that are preventing me from hearing Your Will in my life.
- We commit to walk in obedience to Your Commandments and to represent Your Kingdom with integrity and purity.
- We repent for failing to guard the field that You have given us, where we have allowed the enemy to sow mixed seed and tares.

Matthew 13:24-30 “The Kingdom of Heaven may be compared to a man who sowed good seed in his field, but while his men were sleeping, his enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat and went away. So when the plants came up and bore grain, then the weeds appeared also. And the servants of the master of the house came and said to him, ‘Master, did you not sow good seed in your field? How then does it have weeds?’ He said to them, ‘An enemy has done this.’ So the servants said to him, ‘Then do you want us to go and gather them?’ But he said, ‘No, lest in gathering the weeds you root up the wheat along with them. Let both grow together until the harvest, and at harvest time I will tell the reapers, “Gather the weeds first and bind them in bundles to be burned, but gather the wheat into my barn.””

c. You need to prune well.

Pruning is harsh. It takes away that which seemed so good and fruitful last season. Fact is, much of our growth is only worth one season...and we need new life to bring forth a new vintage wine in a new season.

John 15:1-2 "I am the True Vine, and My Father is the Vinedresser. Every branch in Me that does not bear fruit He takes away, and every branch that does bear fruit He prunes, that it may bear more fruit."

Hebrew 12:11-13 "For the moment all discipline seems painful rather than pleasant, but later it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it. Therefore lift your drooping hands and strengthen your weak knees, and make straight paths for your feet,"

Prayer point

- We petition God to prune, all that is dead wood, all that shows no harvest, and all that is not of the Holy Spirit

d. You need to pick / reap the harvest.

It's one thing to plant and remove the weeds, but there comes a day when the harvest is ripe. In the case of grapes, it's a case of, suddenly, the quality of the sugar content is correct, and the grapes must be harvested. It's all hands-on deck, irrespective of the time ... day or night.

John 12:24-25 “Truly, truly, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it bears much fruit. Whoever loves his life loses it, and whoever hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life.”

John 15:5 “I am the Vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in Me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from Me you can do nothing.”

Prayer point

- We repent for our laziness, for failing to “do” the Will of God at ALL times.

e. Aaron learnt to submit his will to the Father’s Will.

We only are productive, blossom, bear fruit and make a difference in this world, when we submit to the perfect Will of the FATHER.

Aaron knew that his ego / old man was fully submitted to God when his staff / rod had been placed in front of the Ark of the Covenant.

Hebrew 9:3-4 “Behind the second curtain was a second section called the Most Holy Place, having the golden altar of incense and the Ark of the Covenant covered on all sides with gold, in which was a golden urn holding the manna, and Aaron’s staff that budded, and the Tablets of the Covenant.”

What are the lessons for today?

WE ARE PRIESTS BEFORE WE ARE SOLDIERS!

We need to be prepared to go to war!

If your staff / rod has NOT budded, blossomed and produced fruit, then its time to consider the prophetic warning that Jesus speaks of in:

Luke 13:6-9 “And He told this parable: “A man had ta fig tree planted in his vineyard, and he came seeking fruit on it and found none. And he said to the vinedresser, ‘Look, for three years now I have come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and I find none. Cut it down. Why should it use up the ground?’ And he answered him, ‘Sir, let it alone this year also, until I dig around it and put on manure. Then if it should bear fruit next year, well and good; but if not, you can cut it down.””

- ◆ This WORD calls for action.
- ◆ It's not just about believing in faith
- ◆ It's not just about prayer and fasting
- ◆ It's about DOING HIS WILL and that is reflected in your interaction with your fellow man.
- ◆ Just look at the ACTION words that Peter uses ... these are daily lifestyle actions

2 Peter 1:5-8 “For this very reason, make every effort to supplement your faith with virtue, and virtue with knowledge, and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with steadfastness, and steadfastness with godliness, and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love. For if these qualities are yours and are increasing, they keep you from being ineffective or unfruitful in the knowledge of our LORD Jesus Christ.”

BE FRUITFUL!

AMEN

DAY 4

3. How to pray during counselling

Prayer in the personal life of a Counsellor

In the first session I spoke of the rod of authority.

It is the “right” of a priest.

But,

That rod is your inheritance ... provided you walk in a pure and Holy lifestyle.

I am going to list the attributes which I consider to be essential components of a counsellor’s personal prayer life.

1. Stand within the boundaries of the Covenant.

God has made a Covenant with mankind. Those who accept the yoke of the Covenant and become children of the Covenant - are all included, whether Jew or Gentile.

There are stones that determine the boundary of that Covenant

- i) In the first place .. and said as simply as possible:
 - We must love God with all of our heart
 - We must love our neighbour (and the stranger) as we love ourselves.
- ii) In the second place we must die to self.. that is - deal with the old man / ego
- iii) In the third place we need to walk in obedience to His Will and Commandments

The foundation of our prayer life is therefore our standing within that Covenant. Any sin, generational sin, or disobedience OPENS the door for the enemy..

2. Allow no sin to rule in your life.

Deal with personal sins, with matters of pride that have caused broken relationships, and with known generational sins.

Psalm 119:133 “Establish my footsteps in [the way of] Your word; Do not let any human weakness have power over me.”

Matthew 6:10 “Your kingdom come, Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven.”

3. Become a friend of God

We are expected to walk in acts of justice, humility, compassion and mercy.

It is quite easy if your gifting is servant-mercy, or even pastor - to have a heart of compassion for the wounded.

However, in order to function as a counsellor, you need:

Firstly, to become a friend of God.

This means that you will see others through the same eyes as God. You will be able to overcome prejudice. You will be able to be hospitable to the people that you know least of all (like Abraham sitting under the tree with the three angels).

James 2:23 “And the Scripture was fulfilled which says, “Abraham believed God, and this was credited to him as righteousness and as conformity to His will,” and he was called the friend of God.”

John 15:15 “ I do not call you servants any longer, for the servant does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you friends, because I have revealed to you everything that I have heard from My Father.”

Secondly, you need to develop the Fruit of the Holy Spirit.

Those fruit are mandatory in the lives of counsellors ...

- there will be moments of frustration....you need the patience and the long suffering....
- there will be moments of indecision, for which you need kindness, and love ..
- there will be moments where we seem to have lost ground for which you need self control and faithfulness

Galatians 5:22 “

4. Learn to depend on and reflect HIS glory

We are servants of the Most High GOD

We are privileged to be able to represent Him on earth.

It is His glory.. not ours ...it is His victory .. not ours.

And we must remember that in the most difficult of circumstances, GOD is always faithful.

In the wilderness journey He provides:

- the manna,
- the water,
- the directions,
- the victory over the Amalek.

It is His glory.

We must remember to call on Yeshua / Jesus in every trying / difficult / and messy situation where we are faced with someone from the SRA kingdom and call on Him for wisdom / direction / and breakthrough.

Exodus 33:18 “Then Moses said, “Please, show me Your glory!”

5. We must be filled with and listen to the Holy Spirit

Romans 8:2-6 “For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has set you free from the law of sin and of death. For what the Law could not do being weakened by the flesh, God did: He sent His own Son in the likeness of sinful man as an offering for sin. And He condemned sin in the flesh, so that the requirement of the Law might be fulfilled in us who do not live our lives in the ways of the flesh, but in the ways of the Spirit. For those who are living according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who are living according to the Spirit, the things of the Spirit. Now the mind of the flesh is death; but the mind of the Spirit is life and peace;”

Acts 2:1-5 “When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place, and suddenly a sound came from heaven like a rushing violent wind, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting. There appeared to them tongues resembling fire, which were being distributed, and they rested on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues (different languages), as the Spirit was giving them the ability to speak out. Now there were Jews living in Jerusalem, devout and God-fearing men from every nation under heaven.”

It is only with the Holy Spirit's leading that we will be able to discern and to react in love to the woundedness of an SRA survivor.

There are moments to press forward.

There are moments to allow the person to connect

And

There are times when you just have to STOP the counselling of someone in totality until there is a break with the cult.

God will provide the wisdom for the circumstance

Micah 3:8-10 “But in fact, I am filled with power, with the Spirit of the Lord, and with justice and might, to declare to Jacob his transgression and to Israel his sin. Now hear this, you heads of the house of Jacob and rulers of the house of Israel, who hate and reject justice and twist everything that is straight, who build Zion with blood and Jerusalem with violent injustice.”

6. Develop a structure

Every counselling session will be different - in content - in the wounds - in the readiness of the SRA person to receive and respond.

But we need structure

- ◆ We need to have the structure - not to create ritual - but order for everyone to understand how things will happen, what “rules” are in place, and so forth - for example...we cannot allow someone to carry on for hours and hours without getting anywhere, nor can we allow a survivor to influence other survivors with respect to a position of power.
- ◆ We need to have unity in our own family... division within a family or a counselling group will allow the enemy to enter and cause chaos.
- ◆ We need to draft a petition about each and every survivor that we counsel. This will detail their case history, their requirements, and so forth.

(We have detailed the role and power of the petition in other sessions and will not cover this in detail here ... please study this carefully if you have missed it before.)

- ◆ We need to ensure that each survivor has a support person who in a part of each and every session.
- ◆ That support person will provide the after care and help to build capacity needed for the next session.
- ◆ This role is critical to the continued care of the individual and has EQUAL rights with the person doing the counselling...and full transparency of all information MUST be the order of the day.

We need prayer support. No person counselling should do so unless they have a team who can provide the prayer support - before and DURING the sessions.

7. Start counselling.

It is only as you get started and become involved in the process of practical counselling that you will learn how to do this work...there is no recipe or formula - there is no 1-2-3 step manual. Join in with others and a prayer support in live situations so that your prayer can become focused

8. Pray like an arrow

- It does not help to only pray general prayers.
- Develop the practise of praying with purpose.
- Get used to targeting very specific matters which the Holy Spirit brings to mind.

Pray continually.

9. Do what the Holy Spirit says

Very often we will “see and hear” but we will omit to do.. even the strangest of prophetic actions have a meaning.

Do whatever it is that God requires of you and stand with an expectation that this will be the leverage for a breakthrough.

Amen

DAY 4

4. How to apply what you learn from the Survivors

Applying verified Information provided by Survivors in Strategic Warfare

When God called me in to this ministry of counselling inner healing and deliverance, little did I know what I would be in for.

In the second half of the '90's, we started ministering to people with multi-generational Satanism.

I had to learn the following terms:

- Satanic ritual abuse,
- masonic ritual abuse,
- multiple personality disorder,
- mind control.
- This included things like MK Ultra and
- the Monarch Project and
- all kinds of crazy stuff.

There is a very real matrix going on ... so that we don't know what is going on!

Most of the church today is asleep ... you have all heard about the Laodicean Church!!

- ◆ We let the TV lull us to sleep.
- ◆ We think that as long as the money is flowing, then everything is great!
- ◆ Wealth can mimic spirituality ... but the truth is – you can have no money at all and be a GIANT with GOD.

Did you know that the occult is involved in:

- the political,
- educational,
- law enforcement,
- in every level of our society?

If you are connected to the masonic lodge there is a spiritual force behind it that becomes the problem.

My discoveries included:

- 1) Involvement by those in the occult in politics, education and law enforcement.
- 2) The reality of mind-control, Satanic ritual abuse and multiple personalities.
- 3) Systematic poisoning of our food, air and water.

- 4) The occult's deep intrusion into our churches, denominations, seminaries and theologies ... as well as spiritual warfare and psychic warfare aimed at our pastors.

- 5) How the Luciferian agenda includes both aspects of completely controlling every individual on the planet and a deep passion to see the population reduced to just five hundred million.

Follow mind control and one of the fragments of it led all the way back to the Shriners and the Scottish rite in NY city where they were paying to help pioneer mind control - besides the CIA and the other organisations.

If you are a pastor and you are serious about doing things for God, there will be a witch in your congregation!

There is a demonic global network against anyone who is trying to do things in GOD's Kingdom – they will open a file on you.

Whole areas are controlled and monitored by the cult ... they are very well organised.

Anthropology tells us that human sacrifice has always been an integral part of society to create an elite class ... today we just call it ABORTION!

All of this got established in society because the church got lulled to sleep.

The CIA Coined the Term “Conspiracy Theorist” in 1967

- ◆ Specifically in April 1967, the CIA trot a dispatch with coined the term “Conspiracy Theories”
- ◆ and recommended methods for discrediting such theories.
- ◆ The dispatch was marked “psych”
- ◆ short for “psychological operations”
- ◆ or disinformation and “CS” for the CIA’s “Clandestine Services” unit.

There are only TWO views of history ...

1. The Accidental View of History

- Historical events occur by accident, for no apparent reason.
- Rulers are powerless to intervene.

2. The Conspiratorial View of History

- History events occur by DESIGN for reasons not generally made known to the people.

Viewpoint 2

All you have to do it READ the Word of GOD.

Psalm 2:1 "Why are the nations in an uproar ..."

What is a Military Strategy?

- ◆ A military strategy is to set up a conspiracy against the enemy ...
- ◆ while trying to hide that from the enemy, you are trying to also find out what conspiracy the enemy has conspired against you –
- ◆ that they are trying to hide from you!
- ◆ That is the way all nations work! It has since the beginning of time.
- ◆ To understand where everything is going, GOD gives us a HINT.

Isaiah 46:9-10 “Remember the former things of old: for I AM God, and there is none else; I AM God, and there is none like me. Declaring the END from the BEGINNING and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, ‘My counsel shall stand, and I will do all My pleasure’.”

The moment when God created TIME

When GOD said ... “Let there be light” ... He framed the speed of light which created the 12th dimension (the temporal dimension) upon which He laid His Divine governance over the THREE HEAVENS.

Our GOD is omnipresent He fills all time and space.

The moment He said “let light be ...” He was already experiencing the Millennial reign.

He was already the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world.

In all the stories in the Bible, God is helping us to understand where He is going with us.

You need to first understand:

- ◆ Genesis 3, 6 and 11 ...
- ◆ then the Book of Revelations will make sense.
- ◆ God tells you the END from the beginning!

The Bible is a revelation of Jesus ... a revelation of salvation.

Jesus has much to say in the New Testament about Satan and his snares. He warns us of our enemy.

Genesis 6:1-7 “Now it happened, when men began to multiply on the face of the land, and daughters were born to them, that the sons of God saw that the daughters of men were beautiful and desirable; and they took wives for themselves, whomever they chose and desired. Then the Lord said, “My Spirit shall not strive and remain with man forever, because he is indeed flesh; nevertheless his days shall yet be a hundred and twenty years.” There were Nephilim on the earth in those days - and also afterward - when the sons of God lived with the daughters of men, and they gave birth to their children. These were the mighty men who were of old, men of renown. The Lord saw that the wickedness of man was great on the earth, and that every imagination or intent of the thoughts of his heart were only evil continually. The Lord regretted that He had made mankind on the earth, and He was grieved in His heart. So the Lord said, “I will destroy mankind whom I have created from the surface of the earth - not only man, but the animals and the crawling things and the birds of the air - because it grieves Me and I regret that I have made them.”

Strong's data for “there were giants”

05303 נָפִילִים nephilim {nef-eel} or נָפִיל nephil {nef-eel}
Meaning: 1) giants, the Nephilim

This word for Nephilim used in this context is where the Greeks get the word TITAN from. They were ferocious, they were intellectual ... their prowess, their ability to fight, their ability to scheme and to manipulate things beyond our comprehension, and so forth.

In the Mystery Religions this time period is known as the Golden Age on planet earth ... the time of Atlantis – the time when sorcery and technology worked in perfect harmony with one another ... occult power could flow through technology ... to where you could not tell one from another.

The New Testament

- ◆ Jesus has much to say in the New Testament.
- ◆ He teaches us about satan and his snares and ...
- ◆ He warns us of our enemy.

This word for Nephilim used in Genesis 6 is where the Greeks get the word TITAN from.

- ◆ They were ferocious,
- ◆ they were intellectual ...
- ◆ they were experts in many areas,
 - they could fight,
 - their ability to scheme and to manipulate things were beyond our comprehension,
 - and so forth.

The Mystery of Religions

This time period of the TITANS is known as the GOLDEN AGE on planet earth ... the time of ATLANTIS – the time when SORCERY and TECHNOLOGY worked in perfect harmony with one another.

Occult power could flow through technology ... to where you could not tell one from another.

The result was that it filled man's imagination to be filled with evil continually.

It so corrupted man ... they taught them witchcraft, alchemy, poisoning, they taught them forbidden knowledge.

They were taught the ability to open up dimensional portals which enabled them to jump from one side of the planet to the other.

Today, major nations are scouring the earth to try to discover anti-diluvian technology that far surpasses the knowledge we have today.

Spiritual energy can flow through technology.

Have you switched on the TV and listen to a sermon – and suddenly you feel the anointing flowing out of the TV?

There can also be demonic anointing flowing out of the TV – deception can flow through it.

There is a spiritual component connected to the watchers around technology.

Meaning of Strong's data 01368 "mighty men"

gibbowr (ghib-bore) or shortened gibbor	• strong • mighty • strong man • brave man • mighty man
---	---

Gibbor

This is the first time GIBBOR appears in the Bible, is in Genesis 6.

This word is connected to their prowess, strength, the cunning, the ability to make war, the ability to enslave people ... and so forth – and added to that advanced technology – all that is caught up in the concept of GIBBOR.

The next time we see this word is ...

Genesis 8:8-10 "Cush fathered Nimrod; he was the first on earth to be a MIGHTY man. He was a mighty hunter before the Lord. Therefore it is said, "Like Nimrod, a mighty hunter before the Lord."

Nimrod

Nimrod was a mighty hunter before the Lord is repeated TWICE. This means BOLD / UNDERLINED.

“Nimrod got into the Face of GOD and hunted men.”

He wanted to draw them in to a worldly system to draw them away from God and His family – to draw them in to a system and to send them into the devil’s hell.

It was going on in Genesis ... it is going on today.

The mystery of INIQUITY causes man’s heart to beat in the city of Babylon.

That is the primary agenda: To hunt men and to take them away from God.

NIMROD began to be a GIBBOR.

Meaning of Strong’s data 02490 “he began”

chaial (khaw-ial)	• to profane • defile • pollute • decelebrate • begin to profane oneself • defile oneself, pollute oneself. • To ritually, sexuality, to be polluted • be defiled • to make common • to violate the honour of • dishonor • to violate • to treat as common • to let be profaned • to begun • to wound • bore through • pierce • bore • to be slain • to wound • to be wounded • to play the flute or pipe
--------------------------	---

This is the MYSTERY of NIMROD – he did something that the watchers could not do before the flood.

He did something to profane, to defile, to pollute – he corrupted his DNA.

At the point of conception, in vitro.

Nimrod was a man with human DNA – who ended up becoming something else.

Nimrod is the “poster-child” for transhumanism, for every wizard who gets in to alchemy – the whole concept of lead to gold was human to GIBBORIM.

He was able to transmute himself .. this ability has been lost with time .. the Mystery Religions are still trying to find it today!

The Mystery Religions have a job to get mankind in the right place so that NIMROD can be revealed.

How is the world going to be prepared to have NIMROD revealed?

The Mystery of INIQUITY

What empowers the kingdom of darkness??

INQUITY!!

There was an iniquity force that was created in Lucifer when he fell.

He is not all powerful like Almighty GOD is – and so he could not fuel his own kingdom for very long.

After GOD created mankind according to His Image, who can receive and produce after their own kind.

If Lucifer can get iniquity inside of mankind, then by sinning mankind becomes iniquity generators.

The more he can get humanity to sin and to move away from the ways of GOD – especially if he can get Christians to sin by the reason of grace .. he turns us all in to batteries.

The Mystery of Iniquity is the one who restrains.

The occult has Satanic wombs and incubators that were created in hyper-space by the things that they did.

The occult has to raise the iniquity in the earth to the place to where it becomes a womb to mature the anti-christ.

Just like a womb is moved out of the way when a woman gives birth to a child – and will not move out of the way until the time is right ..

THAT IS THE MYSTERY OF INIQUITY!!

That is why they have worked so hard to stop believers from preaching the cross and the Blood ... holiness, and walking with GOD.

Hyper-grace preachers have fallen for this evil plan.

John teaches us that sin is the violation of the law ... what God has said is sin – will forever be sin. The cross did not change God ... the cross did not change our sin.

The cross has freed us from the power of sin so that we can live so that we can lend our members unto righteousness.

The more of us who are walking in righteousness – the more that we can postpone the revealing of the son of perdition because he can't mature in his Satanic womb or incubator.

This is why REVIVAL is so crucial important and why the enemy has worked so hard to put us to sleep.

GIBBOR : "He was pierced through with a mortal wound" ...

He played a flute ... or did he use harmonics to change his DNA???

He became a GIBBOR!

Genesis 10:8 (Septuagint) "And Chus begot Nebrod: he began to be a giant upon the earth."

Septuagint describes that Nimrod was a giant ... says depart from Shem, and I would show you how to become a god.

Jerusalem Targum on Genesis 10:9 "He was mighty in hunting and in sin before GOD, for he was a hunter of the children of men in their languages; and he said unto them, depart from the religion of Shem, and cleave to the institute of Nimrod."

The Two Sides of Nimrod

He was two faces:

- ◆ Told people to leave Shem and he would show them how to become god.
- ◆ But would be savage one moment - the next moment he is a friend – religious / a Luciferian Messiah.

Build the tower of Babel in the city of Babylon.

Size of the city:

- 100-200 square miles
- 400 foot wide wall that 3-4 chariots deep could ride on.

Height of walls had to be higher than Pyramid of Giza – this Pyramid had survived the flood (300 foot high) and so Nimrod decided that to beat the next flood, if God would send another flood, he needed to build higher than the pyramid.

This building stems from that same time - and still exists today ... we believe it was built by the Watchers.

There you can see the technical expertise that is used and would be the same or similar for Babylon / Tower of Babel.

It is not about the height of the tower.

- It is about the place,
- a portal
- a vortex
- a place where things can connect with the spiritual realm.

A place where the ley lines cross – a place which would serve his religious purposes.

Gibborim understood that there are weak places between the 1st and 2nd Heaven.

Another place where there is a weak point – where this portal is to be found is at Mediggo ... this could be the place where Nimrod sets up his conflict with God.

The shape of the Tower of Babel: It is a ZIGGARAT – basically a trapezoid shape.

A trapezoid shape represents the unfinished work of Nimrod - this shape attracts demonic power.

God came down and interrupted the work.

This is the MYSTERY of NIMROD – he did something that the watchers could not do before the flood.

He did something to profane, to defile, to pollute – he corrupted his DNA.

At the point of conception, in vitro.

Nimrod was a man with human DNA – who ended up becoming something else.

Nimrod is the “poster-child” for transhumanism, for every wizard who gets in to alchemy – the whole concept of lead to gold was human to GIBBORIM.

2 Thessalonians 2:7 “For the mystery of lawlessness (rebellion against divine authority and the coming reign of lawlessness) is already at work; (but it is restrained) only until he who now restrains it is taken out of the way.”

The Mystery of Iniquity is already at work.

Only he who now restrains it will do so until he is out of the way.

The Masonic altar represents the Trapezoid shape

The USA One dollar bill has this image on it ... represents the unfinished work of a Gibbor and the One Dollar bill indicates the fulfilment of this image.

UN has this same trapezoid shape room in their building made out of solid steel also called a frust-room (because it is frustrating ... nothing is completed).

The people that gather here are busy trying to become Gibbors they want to fulfil what Messiah said without the Messiah!

When you bow at a masonic altar you are worshipping the Gibbor.

Fulfilment of the trapezoid:

Leaders of the UN nation's gather in this shaped room in the UN in the very symbol of Nimrod's unfinished work!

Mystery Religions

Solomon

He thought that he could outsource his needs instead of waiting for GOD.

He opens to other religions ... with each of his wives, bringing their source of power into the Land of God.

They were always searching for the secret, still trying to grasp at the watchers secret.

Sophisticated	Savage
Civilized	Barbaric
Intelligent	Demonically Twisted
A Builder	A Destroyer
Inspiring leader	Betrayer

They have the long term plan ... leadership of watchers put away for 70 generations, that's about at the beginning of the 20th century all of the interest in UFO / ALIEN CRAFT is about finding that "lost " knowledge i.e. Roswell, Germany ... some already found.

Gifts of Technology

Lucifer's Five I Wills - Isaiah 14:12-14 "How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! How art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations! For thou has said in thine heart," I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God; I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north; I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High."

Adam Weishaupt Founded illuminati

- ◆ 5 is the Biblical number of grace ... but this gets perverted!
- ◆ Lucifer / Weishaupt creates a system of 5.

The five goals for the Illuminati

- 1) Abolition of monarchies and all ordered governments
- 2) Abolition of private property and inheritances
- 3) Abolition of patriotism and nationalism
- 4) Abolition of family life and the institution of marriage and the establishment of communal education of children
- 5) Abolition of all religion

Adam Weishaupt blended five esoteric concepts

- 1) Islamic mysticism
- 2) Jesuit mind-control techniques
- 3) Luciferianism
- 4) Freemasonry concepts of eternal life
- 5) Mind expansion through hallucinogenic drugs

Five Staged Cycle of Human History

Stage 1: Chaos

Stage 2: Discord

Stage 3: Confusion

Stage 4: Bureaucracy

Stage 5: Aftermath

Note: These points are all taken up in the Communist manifesto.

Public education should be supplemented by the teaching at home ... because this has been taken away, we have people who don't think.

Revolution of USA was to retake control of life ... therefore Godly, they would stand against the system that had been built up in Europe.

Preparing for the release of the Watcher Leadership around the beginning of the 20th Century

- ◆ Spiritism
- ◆ Evolution
- ◆ Eugenics

Empowered the philosophy of the Nazis!

Reintroduction of these 3 things was meant to bring back the watchers plan!

Darwin theology ... we can become more than what we are - Gibbor idea

- ◆ Illuminate - plans within plans
- ◆ All have the same introductory oath
- ◆ So the ideas that some are just elementary and innocent
- ◆ Education has changed so that you cannot think ... you just accept whatever they tell you
- ◆ Pokemon is a planned attack to introduce demons everywhere

- ◆ Accreditation will be taken away from Christian schools and colleges if they don't change to the accepted norm i.e. LBGT
- ◆ Mind control
- ◆ TV
- ◆ Side effect - alpha state mentality
- ◆ Cannot sort and analyze
- ◆ You accept information all at an emotional level
- ◆ TV has re-engineered people against Christianity to accept all the garbage

Jesus is also telling the remnant that they will be able to stand against all of these demonic forces.

Matthew 16:18-19 “And I say also unto thee. That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build My church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. And I will give unto thee the keys of the Kingdom of heaven; and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.”

Moving from the strategic to the Operational Level

Up until now I have been discussing the bigger picture of satan's strategy to manipulate, control, and destroy the world from the second heaven.

Most of us who work with survivors will however, be working at an operational or practical level.

We obtain information through all the many memories that the survivors share which detail rituals, identify certain perpetrators whose names keep recurring, and so forth.

This information comes in the form of verbal communication, poems, artwork, and so forth. In the counseling session with that survivor, the Holy Spirit leads us to research and investigate certain topics of information.

As we proceed with the counselling session, we will obtain a strategy from the Holy Spirit which will enable us to deal with that which has been revealed in the session.

As we proceed to minister to other survivors, specifically in other countries, from other cultures and without any visible connection between them whatsoever, we start to find that certain of their experiences are similar in many different ways - they have many different touch points.

Whenever we identify one of these instances where a pattern is revealed with consistent regularity and consistent detail, then we can start to understand that we are dealing with a principle or structure within the global womb of iniquity.

Having addressed this same issue at the individual level, the counsellor would have started to identify the strategic warfare, prayer points, and petitions that are needed to pull down these structures.

Having a network of international counsellors who can meet to exchange ideas from time to time, we can now see:

1. Where one theme or idea occurs regularly and we have international verification of that theme
2. We can begin to develop an operational response that is applicable across many countries and which can empower other counsellors to react much much quicker if they identify this theme in a particular case they are dealing with.

The ARMY of Yahweh now has a common understanding of a particular theme and consequently has a toolbox of general spiritual principles which can be applied by counsellors and intercessors who are experiencing this for the first time.

This process of unity amongst the counsellors has the effect that the spiritual grid set up by the kingdom of darkness is now being dismantled systematically on many points all over the globe!

Mount Hermon

The place where the watchers fell - also the grotto to Pan. Pan has a flute.

THE GATES: where the leader's of the watchers dwell

Yeshua / Jesus transfigured here so that the watchers could know that they are not GOD .

He is also telling the remnant that they will be able to stand against all of these demonic forces.

We don't have a demonic flute - we have a SHOFAR!

This is a call to war and to march forward and possess the Land!!

Those called out of Babylon ...

- ◆ The ecclesia will know that they will know their God.
- ◆ They will not compromise, even if the watchers raise their game.
- ◆ This group / the remnant will rise to a greater level and defeat this enemy!!
